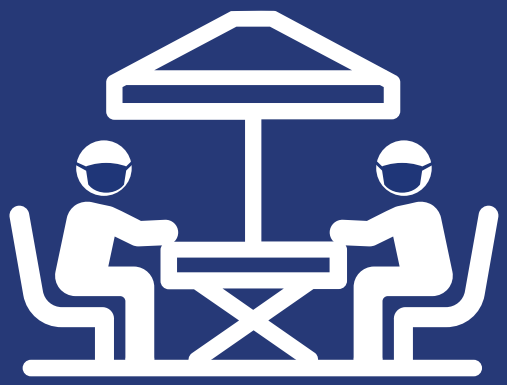
When to wear your face covering while dining out

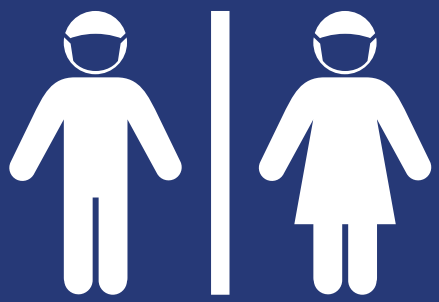
Our dedicated staff is on the front lines providing an essential service to our community.

While waiting to be seated at a table or to pick up your to-go order



Anytime you are not eating or drinking while seated at your table

Anytime your server or another staff member approaches your table



Anytime you leave your table, such as to use the restroom

Please be kind and help us protect one another by following these protocols. This business is required to refuse service to anyone who does not comply.
