Make It Right:
Young people ages 12-17 referred by DA's office.

PATHWAYS TO SF CARC

FUTURE

ON POINT OF ARREST & DETAINED AT JJC

A young person that is diverted, arrested, and booked at JJC for a citation will be eligible for CARC intake/assessment & referral service

Future eligibility: all young people ages 12-18 that are cited by law enforcement and at point of arrest.
Level of citation no longer relevant to SF CARC eligibility

CITE BACKS AND DEFERRED APPOINTMENTS

Current process from previous slides will guide us in this new collaborative processes that include: JSCC CBO's youth/family, SF CARC, DA's office & JPD

APPOINTMENTS FOR INTAKE & ASSESSMENT REFERRAL SERVICES ONLY

A highly collaborative process between JPD, young person/family, JSCC CBO's and SF CARC

New collaboratives are being built with other law enforcement agencies to support with appointment process

EXPANDING LAW ENFORCEMENT REFERRALS TO SF CARC

In collaboration with SFPD creating a process of referring pre arrested young people rooted in best practices of diversion.

Citations that are not eligible to be booked are referred to SF CARC via an appointment based system. Citation will be put in abeyance for up to 6 months.
