

San Francisco Juvenile Probation Supervision Overview

LORENA GARCIA, SENIOR SUPERVISING PROBATION OFFICER
MARIA MCKEE, DIRECTOR OF RESEARCH & PLANNING
JUVENILE PROBATION COMMISSION
JULY 10, 2024

Background

- Commissioner Lacoé asked the Juvenile Probation Department (JPD) to provide a supervision overview:
 - Juvenile probation supervision types
 - Role of the assigned Deputy Probation Officer (DPO) for each supervision type
 - Number of young people currently supervised by type.
- All young people under age 18 arrested in San Francisco are referred to JPD and supported throughout the entire juvenile case process.
 - The age of juvenile court jurisdiction extends up to age 25 for certain offenses.
- The California Welfare & Institutions Code (WIC) provides the legal framework for the role that probation plays in supporting young people, depending on their legal circumstances and the stage of the case.
