Beth Davila Waldman

Beth Davila Waldman is a cross-disciplinary artist based in the San Francisco Bay Area. She earned a BA from Wellesley College and a BFA from the San Francisco Art Institute. She has been awarded residencies at Kala Art Institute in Berkeley, 18th Street Art Center in Santa Monica, and Playa Institute in Oregon. She serves on the board of PhotoAlliance and on the Curatorial Committee for Monte Vista Projects in Los Angeles.

About PhotoAlliance

PhotoAlliance is a nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting the understanding, appreciation and creation of contemporary photography.

PhotoAlliance events have been the meeting place for the San Francisco Bay Area photo community since 2002. They foster connections through public lectures by noteworthy photographers, a variety of workshops, portfolio reviews, and other timely public programs and symposia.
