Transformation

Youth Leadership Institute Partnership

- Youth Leadership Institute (YLI), San Francisco State University (SFSU), and San Francisco Juvenile Probation Department collaboration.
- YLI recruiting up to 3 SFSU undergraduate & graduate students, age 21-24, to support annual survey of youth housed in Juvenile Justice Center.
- Incorporates Youth Participatory Action Research component.
 - Includes feedback loop regarding JPD's transformation efforts.

The poster features a central image of a rose with its roots exposed, set against a background of cracked concrete. The title 'CONCRETE ROSE' is written in large, red, block letters at the top. In the top left corner is the San Francisco Juvenile Probation Department logo, and in the top right is the YLI logo with the tagline 'Use Your Voice'. Two white speech bubbles with red text provide details about the program. A red arrow points from the bottom left towards the center, and another red arrow points from the top right towards the center. At the bottom, there is a QR code and a vertical text label 'SCAN FOR APPLICATION'. The background has a graffiti-like texture.
