The Art Vendor Advisory Committee will only screen two crafts per meeting. If you want to screen for additional crafts, you will need to complete a new application after you have been approved for two. How many crafts are you applying for? Example: Beaded jewelry and watercolor paintings on canvas are two crafts; ceramic pendants and ceramic bowls are one craft (Ceramic items)

Please list your one craft item to be screened:

Are you a current art vendor adding an additional craft?

A family unit is two (2) or more persons jointly engaged in the creation of an art or craft item. Is this an application for a Family Unit?

Artist Biography (Please provide a short biography about yourself and your craft)

1. Describe the items you plan to sell and how each type of item is made. Please be as detailed as possible. Example: I plan to sell digital photographic prints of artwork that I designed in Illustrator and printed on cardstock using a home printer

2. Where did you learn your craft? Did you take a class or learn on your own?

Please provide up to two (2) images of your craft in process. The images should include you demonstrating your process. See an example here

Please provide up to two (2) images of your finalized craft. The images should show examples of what you plan to sell. See an example here

Please provide an image of your workspace that includes the equipment and materials used in your craft. See an example here

I am applying for only one craft

No

Have been art professionally for the past 10 years and want to practice it while also engaging with the community as well as make some money on the side.

I would use charcoal or colored pencils in paper.

4. Is your craft considered an American Indian or Alaskan Native style, traditional or contemporary, arts and crafts? Do you identify as a member of the community that practices this cultural tradition? Are you compliant with The Indian Arts and Crafts Act of 1990?

No

5. What makes your work different from other artists and craftspeople making similar items?

I like to do traditional portraits rather than more cartoon like caricatures.

(Optional) Please provide an artist CV or Résumé:

No answer given

(Optional) Please provide any Letters of Recommendation from other markets or studios you may have.

No answer given

6. What artist or business name are you operating under?

Spitblossoms

7. Do you have a website, Etsy, Instagram or any other publicly accessible online store or social media account?

Yes

If Yes, please provide links to your public sites.

Spitblossoms.com

(Optional) Please upload your logo or signage.

No answer given

(Optional) Please upload your image of display.

No answer given

8. Does your artwork comply with all federal, state, and local laws and ordinance, including, if necessary, lawful authority to use logos or other images protected by Copyright or Trademark laws?

Yes

9. Are you using any sports or company logos such as SF Giants or other recognizable branding that is not your own?

No

10. How are you ensuring customers can tell a difference between your work and commercial or mass-produced items?

They are drawn in person of themselves

11. What steps have you taken to ensure that you are not violating any copyright or other laws?

I use only personal work.

12. Please upload recent receipts for any tools and materials. Receipts must be for the same tools and materials used to create the items in the work samples you provide. Receipts must show that the materials were shipped to you/your address. See an example here. Optionally, you can upload images of your workspace. The image of your workspace must include the equipment and materials used in your craft.
