The Art Vendor Advisory Committee will only screen two crafts per meeting. If you want to screen for additional crafts, you will need to complete a new application after you have been approved for two. How many crafts are you applying for? Example: Beaded jewelry and watercolor paintings on canvas are two crafts; ceramic pendants and ceramic bowls are one craft (Ceramic items)

Please list your one craft item to be screened:

Are you a current art vendor adding an additional craft?

A family unit is two (2) or more persons jointly engaged in the creation of an art or craft item. Is this an application for a Family Unit?

Artist Biography (Please provide a short biography about yourself and your craft)

1. Describe the items you plan to sell and how each type of item is made. Please be as detailed as possible. Example: I plan to sell digital photographic prints of artwork that I designed in Illustrator and printed on cardstock using a home printer.

2. Where did you learn your craft? Did you take a class or learn on your own?

Please provide up to two (2) images of your craft in process. The images should include you demonstrating your process. See an example here.

Please provide up to two (2) images of your finalized craft. The images should show examples of what you plan to sell. See an example here.

No

I have a regular day job as a medical asst and I do my artworks on my spare time, usually weekends. I already have experience in Outdoor market recently this year at Redwood art square and Makers Market in Mill Valley, CA. I have 3 art works featured in the UK magazine ART Talk magazine and will be featured digitally in Leicester Square and Oxford Circus this coming Oct. 1 12, 2024. I would like to explore more venues, especially San Francisco.

I plan to sell my paintings on canvas, bags, wood and other mediums that can be used practically everyday

I am self taught and I have been doing art since I was a little girl.
