The Art Vendor Advisory Committee will only screen two crafts per meeting. If you want to screen for additional crafts, you will need to complete a new application after you have been approved for two. How many crafts are you applying for? Example: Beaded jewelry and watercolor paintings on canvas are two crafts; ceramic pendants and ceramic bowls are one craft (Ceramic items)

Please list your one craft item to be screened:

Are you a current art vendor adding an additional craft?

A family unit is two (2) or more persons jointly engaged in the creation of an art or craft item. Is this an application for a Family Unit?

Artist Biography (Please provide a short biography about yourself and your craft)

1. Describe the items you plan to sell and how each type of item is made. Please be as detailed as possible Example I plan to sell digital photographic prints of artwork that I designed in Illustrator and printed on cardstock using a home printer.

2. Where did you learn your craft? Did you take a class or learn on your own?

Please provide up to two (2) images of your craft in process The images should include you demonstrating your process See an example here

Please provide up to two (2) images of your craft in process. The images should include you demonstrating your process See an example here

Please provide up to two (2) images of your finalized craft The images should show

My name is John Daniel White.I grew up and live in San Francisco. I studied photography at City College of San Francisco. My photography style is What I see is What you get. Most of my photographs are black and whites, and also use a technique that creates Lumiscapes, which is a painting with color using the camera as a brush.

I plan to sell digital photographic prints that I created and digitally print on paper and fabrics

City College of San Francisco and self taught.
