The Way It Is Now: The City's Office of Citizen Complaints (OCC) investigates complaints of misconduct by officers in the San Francisco Police Department. But, OCC does not investigate complaints that on their face show that the acts complained of were proper. OCC also does not investigate complaints lodged by other police officers. OCC is not required to investigate incidents involving conduct by police officers if no one files a complaint.

The Proposal: Proposition ___ would require the OCC to investigate any incident occurring within the City in which a San Francisco police officer fired a gun killing or physically injuring someone, even if no one files a complaint.

A "YES" Vote Means: If you vote "yes," you want OCC to investigate any incident occurring within the City in which a police officer fired a gun killing or physically injuring someone.

A "NO" Vote Means: If you vote "no," you do not want to adopt this law.
