

NONDISCRIMINATION NOTICE

Discrimination is against the law. San Francisco Behavioral Health Services follows State and Federal civil rights laws. San Francisco Behavioral Health Services does not unlawfully discriminate, exclude people, or treat them differently because of sex, race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, ethnic group identification, age, mental disability, physical disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, gender, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

San Francisco Behavioral Health Services provides:

- Free aids and services to people with disabilities to help them communicate better, such as:
 - Qualified sign language interpreters
 - Written information in other formats (large print, braille, audio or accessible electronic formats)
- Free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:
 - Qualified interpreters
 - Information written in other languages

If you need these services, contact Behavioral Health Access Center 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by calling 1-888-246-3333. Or, if you cannot hear or speak well, please call TDD/TTY: 711. Upon request, this document can be made available to you in braille, large print, audio, or accessible electronic formats.
