

FY20-21 Baker/Positive Resource Center (PRC) Funding

FY21-22 Baker/Positive Resource Center (PRC) Funding Updated 12/3/21

Section	Program	Contract ID #	FY21-22 Funding Amount	Services
HHS	PRC - HIV Employment Services including HIV Work Re-entry svcs, Getting To Zero Employment svcs, and Employment Services Program - Castro County Club	1000002521	774,333	Employment assessment, job development and placement assistance, service plan development and follow-up; and group employment support and services. On the Job Training (OJT) and placement assistance, service plan development and follow-up at the Castro Country Club.
HHS	PRC - Frontline Workers Group	1000002658	166,963	PRC's communications and program capacity-building goal is to improve access to and retention in healthcare for HIV- positive individuals by raising awareness among consumers and service-providers of treatment sites and benefits programs through effective communication and training. NO Legal Services will be provided.
HHS	PRC - Emergency Financial Svcs	1000009024	1,407,632	Emergency Financial Assistance grants for housing, utility bills, medical expenses, etc.
HHS	PRC - Benefits Counseling/Equal Access to HealthCare Program	1000010913	608,303	The Benefits Counseling through Equal Access to Healthcare Program (EAHP) addresses the incomplete information and systemic barriers clients living with HIV/AIDS experience in accessing healthcare through the Affordable Care Act (ACA).
BHS	Positive Resource Center Benefits Counseling Program - SSI/Medical Advocacy Services	1000003034	$ 1,651,432	Legal representation of eligible clients who are uninsured, underinsured, or at risk of losing insurance to pursue or maintain SSI-SSDI/CAPI and corresponding Medi-Cal/Medicare.
BHS	Baker Places - Residential and Detox AILP (assisted Independent Living), Odyssey House, Grove Street House, Baker Street House, Robertson Place, Jo Ruffin Place, San Jose Place, Acceptance Place, Joe Healy Medical Detox	1000009940	$ 13,403,346	The Baker Places Transitional Residential Treatment Programs (TRTP) aim to reduce BHS clients' utilization of crisis and inpatient services by successfully providing an integrated, psychosocial rehabilitation and recovery approach within a social milieu that will stabilize their mental health and substance use. Additionally, Acceptance Place aims to reduce the impact of chemical dependency in the population of gay and bisexual men, and Joe Healy Detoxification Program is a medically managed residential detoxification, treatment and education program with a length-of-stay of up to 7 days for alcohol withdrawal, 14 days for benzodiazepine withdrawal, and 12 days for prior-authorized opiate withdrawal.

FY20-21 Baker/Positive Resource Center (PRC) Funding

Section	Program	Contract ID #	FY21-22 Funding Amount	Services
BHS	Baker Places - Hummingbird (ZSFG Campus)	1000012788	$ 3,532,477	Hummingbird Place is a behavioral health respite facility with 42-bed overnight capacity and up to 25 day drop-in capacity. The program expects an average stay of 17 days, engages treatment pre-contemplative clients in the system of care and provides access to recovery and wellness conversation, activities, and programs in a home-like environment. The program is designed to reduce crisis and inpatient services. The program provides an integrated, social rehabilitation, trauma informed, and harm-reduction model within a social milieu to support clients in all areas of their recovery.
BHS	Baker Places - Hummingbird 1156 Valencia (Tipping Point grant and general fund)	1000017071	$ 2,834,246	Behavioral Health respite at 1156 Valencia Street in San Francisco. See above. This is the second site.
BHS	Baker Places - Ferguson Place - HIV Supportive Services, Residential Treatment, and Rental Subsidy	1000002627	$ 1,600,674	To provide a continuum of services, including residential treatment, supported housing and continuing care which create and maintain the peer and community supports that persons with HIV/ AIDS and related substance use and mental health problems need to achieve and sustain long-term recovery and long-term housing; and, therefore the ability to prevent and/or manage HIV-related health complications and substance use relapses.

$ 25,979,406