Findings to Allow Teleconferenced Meetings Under California Government Code Section 54953(e)

Agenda Item 3

Discussion and Action

Findings to Allow Teleconferenced Meetings

- On September 16, 2021, Governor Newsom signed AB 361, a bill that amends the Brown Act to allow local policy bodies to continue to meet by teleconferencing during a state of emergency [...] provided that the policy bodies make certain findings at least once every 30 days.
- The Coordinating Council must make two findings (and vote) today on whether to continue remote meetings:
 1. That the Coordinating Council has considered the circumstances of the state of emergency and,
 2. That one of the following circumstances exist:
 - (a) The state of emergency continues to directly impact the ability of members to meet safely in person

OR

 - (b) State or local officials continue to impose or recommend measures to promote social distancing.

Juvenile Justice Transformation Update

Agenda Item 5

Discussion

DJJ Realignment

Division of Juvenile Justice Realignment (SB 823 & SB 92)

- SB 823 shifts responsibility to the counties for the custody, care, and supervision of youth who would have otherwise been eligible for the Division of Juvenile Justice (DJJ), California's youth prisons.
 - SB 92 allows counties to establish local Secure Youth Treatment Facilities for youth who would have been otherwise eligible for DJJ commitment.
- Adjusts the Age of Jurisdiction: Extended to 21, 23, or 25, depending on offense
- Intake at DJJ stopped July 1, 2021
- New state Office of Youth & Community Restoration (OYCR) within Health & Human Services Agency which will receive plans from each county

DJJ Realignment & JIRBG

- Each county receives “Juvenile Justice Realignment Block Grant” funds (“JIRBG” funds) based on state funding formula
- To be eligible for state realignment funding: each county shall create a Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council (JJCC) subcommittee to develop a plan to provide appropriate rehabilitation and supervision services to youth who were eligible for DJJ commitment prior to its closure
 - SF’s JJCC DJJ Realignment Subcommittee is made up 15 members, 9 of whom are community members or youth advocates
- San Francisco’s unanimously approved DJJ Realignment Plan was submitted to the Office of Youth & Community Restoration (OYCR) in December 2021.
- San Francisco’s current and projected funding:

FY 21/22:	FY 22/23:	FY 23-24:
$805,571	$2,353,800	$3,899,536

SF DJJ Realignment Plan

- Community-Based Services:
 - Leverage what's already in community for young people on probation; use funding to address specific gaps
- Out-of-home Placement:
 - Identify additional placement options
- Secure Youth Treatment Facility (SYTF):
 - Use Juvenile Hall as SF's interim SYTF and to revise SYTF plan once City leadership makes decisions re: SF's place of detention;
 - Recommend to City leadership to consider co-locating SF's SYTF and SF's future place of detention;
 - Regardless, SYTF should be healing-centered, family-centered, community-connected, and culturally responsive;
 - Enable youth to be placed in out-of-county SYTFs as appropriate.

SF JJRBG Allocation Plan

- Across All Settings (Community, Placement, & SYTF):
 - Credible messenger life coaches
 - Whole family support
 - Flexible funding, including direct funding to young people and their families
 - Collective training for system stakeholders and partners
- In SYTF: Flexible funding for personalized programming & support
 - Education
 - Workforce development
 - Behavioral health and wellness
 - Parenting
 - Substance abuse
 - Reentry/transition
- Leverage community providers for these services; and issue RFP for any new programming.
- RFP development for credible messenger life coaches and whole family support underway now.
