

- One Family
- Project WHAT!
- San Francisco Children of Incarcerated Parents Partnership (SFCIPP)
 - https://www.projectavary.org/bill-of-rights
 - #5 and #6

5. I have the right to speak with, see and touch my parent.

6. I have the right to support as I face my parent's incarceration.

Strengths & Opportunities

Opportunities

- More natural environment
- Treated more as a right than a privilege.
- Seen as a partnership that supports healing, not as a benefit that people take advantage of. Ex. Contact visits as the scapegoat for drugs being present in the jail.
- Authentic motivation to connect with children.
- Motivated to care for children once released
- Buy-in from non-incarcerated parent.
- Providing tangible supports for the parent who is not incarcerated.

Strengths

- Apply information in real time through contact visits.
- Sustained purpose that's meaningful agency over one's legacy = freedom
- Promotes healthy attachment during a difficult time.
- Opportunities to process and model healthy coping mechanisms with children.
- Parenting shows people's humanity
- Led by an outside organization. Minimal contact/interaction with custodial staff.
