6. SDDT FY 22-23 and FY 23-24 Budget, Morgan Owens, Mayor's Budget Office [Discussion and Possible Action] - 10 minutes

Morgan Owens, budget analyst with the Mayor's Budget Office. Mayor's priorities for the city budget FY 22-23 totaling $13.9Bil and her priorities focused on the city's pressing issues, such as raises for city workforce, cost of doing business in the city for non-profits, public safety – police alternatives, investments in behavioral health, supportive housing sites, and economic recovery.

There were not many changes to the SDDT FY 22-23 and FY 23-24 budget from previous year. SDDT funded budget categories were kept consistent with fair amount of alignment with the SDDTAC budget recommendations. There are few budget items that did divert from the SDDTAC recommendations, in general what was previously adopted for soda tax funds was reflective of the Mayor's priorities and remains true in most recent year.

Morgan clarifies that the priorities of city workforce were part of labor negotiations, over the 2 years of FY 23-24 there is a 10% raise included and is reflective of pressures of inflation. Additionally, in the Mayor's budget funds were included for non-profits, funds for doing business increase for nonprofit contracts (cost of living increase) 5.25% and the Board of Supervisors included addback funding as part of final budget negotiations, intended to focus on wages and non-profit workers.

Member asks how serious does Mayor take to understand how serious the recommendations are of the SDDTAC, as a lot of time is spent voluntary by members. SDDTAC submits a balanced budget, understanding that the budget may be followed closely but there are areas that were skewed and where can SDDTAC bridge the task and our role to identify what is happening on the ground/community and for the budget recommendations not to be followed? Moran responds that the SDDTAC recommendations are taken seriously, and the Mayor's Office does not prepare the budget until recommendations are received. He shared that in current year a lot of the funds were balanced through reductions to Requity. Requity is a big priority for the Mayor, which leaves less room for anything else.

Member asks for continued conversations with the Mayor's Office and Budget Office to be a priority, to allow SDDTAC to provide clarity on budget recommendations. Morgan agrees and will ensure that it can happen to meet with budget office and Mayor.

Public Comment:

Katie Ettman, SPUR – tracking soda tax revenue for years, echoes request in future to meet earlier and often to discuss budget recommendations to understand the full story of what is being recommended, to bring to fulfillment as best as we can.

Staff shares funding streams of SDDT budget categories. Most of SDDT categories are only funded through soda tax revenue. There was a lot of interest for these funds not to backfill but to focus on healthy eating, active living, and decrease sugary drink consumption. There are few exceptions, SFUSD food, receives federal funding but is not funded for kitchen upgrades, etc.

College Scholarships budget line per Veronica there are many organizations and efforts being done to provide scholarships in the health field for priority populations.

CBOs working with SFUSD	Recommend 3% of all CBO funding should go towards CBOs implementing programs/initiatives that take place in school settings. Funding to issue grants to CBOs should follow the guidelines above.
SFUSD
School Food, Nutrition Ed	To improve the quality and appeal of school meals and support nutrition education to increase participation in school meal programs (for example: cooking and serving equipment, staff professional development, and innovative procurement and menu strategies to increase freshly prepared food). BREASTFEEDING	To fund a breastfeeding coalition to organize collective efforts across San Francisco to enable increased breastfeeding among Priority Populations. This coalition will mobilize action on policy, systems, and environmental (PSE) changes to increase breastfeeding rate and duration, leveraging community strengths and tackling structural barriers to reduce inequities to breastfeeding support. This would include funding for backbone support to engage community stakeholders in a strategic planning and engagement process to develop a framework for short and long term goals embedded in principles of equity; help align breastfeeding support services in San Francisco including hospital, outpatient, and community based services to improve access to breastfeeding support; and provide technical assistance to partnering agencies (such as child care centers and businesses with less than 50 employees) to operationalize and implement breastfeeding friendly policies and practices. Funding will also support community based organizations that are already supporting breastfeeding.

*The Board of Supervisors made a series of adbacks in the FY 17-18 budget. When the Board of Supervisors makes changes to the Mayor’s budget, some of these changes are “adbacks” denoting the Board’s decision to add funds back for a particular service. Adbacks become part of an agency’s baseline budget.
