TO: Civil Service Commission

FROM: Carol Isen, Human Resources Director

SUBJECT: Proposed Changes to Civil Service Commission Rules: 102, 202, and 302 Definitions; 110, 210, and 310 Examination Announcements and Applicants; 111, 211, and 311 Examinations; 111A Position-Based Testing; 112, 212, and 312 Eligible Lists; and, 113, 213, and 313 Certification of Eligibles to Modernize and Expedite Hiring

Executive Summary

The San Francisco Department of Human Resources (DHR) is seeking amendments to Civil Service Rules in order to rationalize the City's hiring processes; including modifications or elimination of constraints that add time and resources without equivalent value, and to allow for the full use and value of the City's recent investments in technological innovation.

The rule changes proposed in this staff report are an initial set of amendments that would align our practices with advances in technology and provide greater consistency in the early stages of the hiring process. This report provides additional details and research to support the first phase of DHR's proposed changes to Civil Service Rules.

The roots of our current hiring process date back to the early 20th century. Layers of regulations and practices were added over the 120 years since the civil service system was established. The current Civil Service Rules, which have not been fully reviewed for major revisions in a generation, contribute to convoluted, resource intensive and lengthy hiring processes.

Certain Civil Service Rules do not account for the tools, technology, and best practices available today. For example, many Civil Service Rule timelines are predicated on the use of the United States Postal Service to notify candidates of decisions, rather than instantaneous notifications that have long been available via electronic mail. As a result, various steps in the hiring process require the City to stop progress toward final selection to allow for the full exhaustion of time limits required by Civil Service Rules.

Further, the Civil Service Rules cited in this report limit the discretion of the Human Resources Director to align timelines with the unique conditions of each recruitment. With low unemployment, along with profound shifts in the job market, the City's permanent vacancy rate has increased to 13.8%, approximately double the pre-COVID permanent vacancy rate.

The Civil Service Rule changes recommended here provide greater authority to the Human Resources Director to match the timeline of each recruitment to the specific circumstances of the recruitment, create greater consistency in the administration of hiring, and reduce the time to hire. It is DHR's assessment that the proposed amendments contained in this report can be made without negatively impacting the rights of applicants. These changes will result in time-savings without deviating from the core goals of the city's merit system.

Government Operations Recovery Initiative and Current Status

The Department of Human Resources, the City Administrator, and the Controller are collaborating to improve the City's core business processes that affect the overall functioning and effectiveness of government services, including contracting, hiring and financial operations in the City post-COVID through the Government Operations Recovery Initiative. The proposed amendments to the Civil Service Rules are part of this effort, along with additional administrative changes that DHR and City Departments are undertaking to improve our overall speed and effectiveness in hiring.

DHR anticipates returning to the Commission with additional proposed rule changes in the 3rd quarter of Fiscal Year 2022-23.

FY	Perm Vacancies (%)
2023	4,793 (13.8%)
2022	3,774 (11.1%)
2021	2,990 (9.0%)
2020	2,328 (7.0%)
2019	2,230 (6.8%)

This chart illustrates the steady increase in permanent vacancies since Fiscal Year 2019. The COVID global pandemic has exacerbated the challenges associated with understaffing. During the pandemic, the City's permanent vacancy rate, which for years has hovered around 7.0%, has nearly doubled to 13.8%, which translates into nearly 4,800 permanent vacancies.

This is layered on top of high vacancy rates and hiring process challenges in a competitive labor market, with unemployment rates at 3.7%.¹ When paired with the City's lengthy hiring process, the City is at a disadvantage with many applicants being hired before the City's hiring process has reached the half-way mark.

As the City emerges from the pandemic, it needs to fill vacant positions to deliver delayed and deferred projects. However, the current Civil Service hiring process can complicate the City's ability to staff vital roles. Addressing the hiring backlog will have a significant impact on improving essential government operations and delivering public services.

Summary of Rule Changes

DHR proposes seven rule changes for Volume I. The recommended rule changes are based on DHR's experience and the results of survey work. DHR surveyed 15 public sector jurisdictions with varying workforce sizes on their rules regarding testing and hiring². The City considered the survey results in its recommendations to CSC and will discuss the findings with the proposed rule changes below.

DHR requests that the Civil Service Commission revise the rules to achieve the following objectives:

- remove barriers to hiring,
- expedite examination and hiring processes,
- provide added flexibility for specific recruitment needs,
- align rules with advancements in technology,
- align class-based and position-based testing processes, and
- provide clarity and consistency of language across rules.

DHR recommends the proposed rule changes be applied across Volumes I, II, and III of the Civil Service Rules. DHR is referencing Volume I in the "Summary of Recommendations", but the concept applies to similar rules for Volumes II, and III.

The proposed rule changes are as listed as follows:

- Definition of Employment Opportunity Website/Post (Rules 102.4, 202.4, 302.4; 102.25, 202.27, and 302.24)
- Minimum Posting for Examinations Announcements (Rules 110.3 and 310.3)
- Notice of Examinations (Rules 210.2 and 310.8)
- Promotional Applicants (Rules 110.11, 111A.13 and 310.8.1)
- Review of Rating Periods (Rules 11A.22, 111.13, 111.15.1, 111.15.2, 111.31, 112.7, and 311.12.3[1])
- Extension of Eligibility (Rule 112.3)
- Duration of Tentative Eligible List Posting Period (212.9.1 and 312.13)
- Exhaustion of the List (Rule 113.6)
- Notice of Inquiry (Rules 113.10, 213.8.1, and 313.7.1)
- Notice of Certification (Rules 213.8.2[1-3] and 313.7.2[1-3])

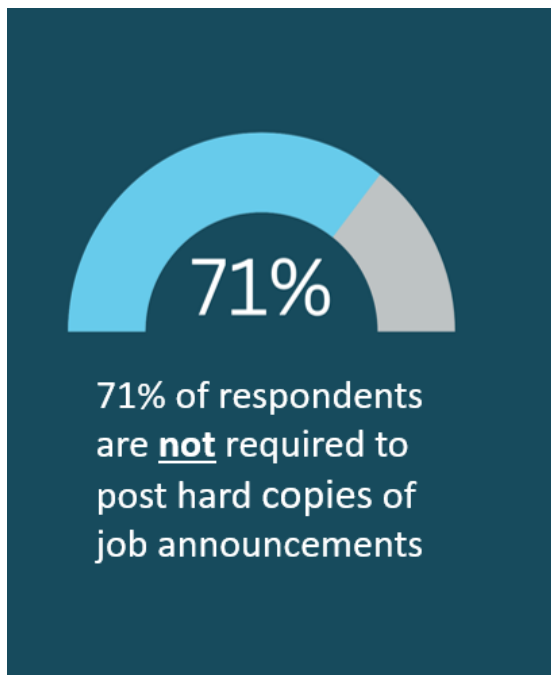

² Survey included: City of Los Angeles, and the following California Counties in order of size of workforce: Los Angeles, Santa Clara, Sacramento, Ventura, Alameda, San Joaquin, San Mateo, Sonoma, San Louis Obispo, Butte, Napa, Nevada, Modoc, Alpine.

Summary of Recommendations for Revisions to Civil Service Commission Rules

The following section summarizes the proposed rule revisions. The detailed revisions to the language of the rules across Volumes I, II, and III are provided in Attachments A – C.

1. Definition of Employment Opportunity Website (Rule 102.4)

The focus of the proposed revision is to change the term “Bulletin Board” to “Employment Opportunity Website” to reflect the current official location for posting examinations, recruitments, and public announcements. This revision will align what is currently considered the “official bulletin board” with advancements in technology, industry standards, and current practice. In DHR’s survey of 15 public sector jurisdictions, 71% of respondents are not required to post hard copies of job announcements. DHR also proposes to change the definition of “Post” to reflect publishing the information on the Employment Opportunity Website.

Required to post hard copy job announcements?
Organization	Employee Count	No	Yes
Los Angeles County	101,980	X
Santa Clara County	20,638	X
Sacramento County	9,623		X
Ventura County	9,503	X
Alameda County	8,215	X
San Joaquin County	6,000	X
San Mateo County	5,683	X
Sonoma County	3,860		X
SLO County	2,807	X
Butte County	2,373	X
Napa County	1,527	X
Nevada County	807	X
County of Modoc	178		X
Alpine County	115		X

If candidates come to DHR to look for jobs, they are directed to a computer to view all announcements for open positions on the Employment Opportunity Website. The proposed change does not preclude departments from posting physical copies at their locations to promote and highlight specific available positions to their employees, and DHR encourages departments to pursue additional outreach strategies to achieve a diverse pool of candidates.

2. Minimum Posting Periods for Examinations Announcements (Rule 110.3)

DHR proposes two revisions to this Rule. Specifically changing references to “bulletin board” to “employment opportunities website” to align with the revised definition in Civil Service Rule 102.4 and removing the specified number of days for publicly posting job announcements.

The proposed revision to the number of days for publicly posting the job announcement would provide the Human Resources Director the flexibility and administrative authority to determine the time period for posting based on the specifics of the recruitment. In considering the length for posting a position, the Human Resources Director shall consider, among other factors, the number of vacancies, turn over in the classification, labor market availability, and equal employment and racial equity goals.

The current rule requires five business days for entrance and 10 business days for combined entrance and promotive exams, without regard to the number of applicants, the number of vacancies, etc.

Applicants no longer submit applications through the mail or by walking into a City office. Instead, for the last 14 years, applicants apply directly through the Employment Opportunity Website, which can be accessed by electronic devices including smartphones or computers. DHR provides computers in its lobby to help jobseekers, and staff are available to assist applicants having difficulty applying for City jobs.

For recruitments with many applications and few open positions, this rule change will allow the Human Resources Director to close the recruitment earlier, based on the specifics of the recruitment. This flexibility will not only decrease the posting period, but it will also decrease the time it takes to review applications, administer tests, score the examinations, and outreach to applicants due to having an applicant pool that better aligns with the number of vacant positions for the classification.

3. Promotional Applicants (Rule 110.11, 111A.13, 111.23.1, 111.23.2, 111.23.3)

DHR supports the Commission's recommendation to revise rule 110.11 to consider promotive applicants as employees with six consecutive months of verifiable experience in any job classification in any appointment type. In addition to these rule changes, DHR is suggesting revising rule 111A.13 to be consistent with CSC's recommendation. DHR is also recommending striking rules 111.23.1, 111.23.2, 111.23.3 as they conflict with the rule change being proposed above and rule 110.11 covers all classes in Volume I including those represented by the Transport Worker Union, Locals 200 and 250A.

The proposed change would do the following:

- Award promotional points to exempt employees applying for class-based testing (CBT) recruitments;
- Eliminate confusion amongst candidates who do not understand why they are awarded promotional points in one recruitment (PBT) and not in the other (CBT);
- Align CBT and position-based testing (PBT) processes;
- Eliminate up to three weeks of promotional point processing as human resources staff needs to look at each employee's personnel file to confirm satisfactory performance.

Of the eight public sector jurisdictions who award promotional points, only one organization checks for employee performance.

4. Review of Ratings Period (Rules 111A.22, 111.13, 111.15.1, 111.15.2, 111.31, 112.7, 112.7.1, 112.7.2, 112.7.3)

DHR proposes removing the specified number of days for reviewing ratings, instead it requests providing the Human Resources Director the flexibility and administrative authority to determine the minimum period based on the specifics of the recruitment. This would also align CBT with PBT processes. In considering the rating period, the Human Resources Director shall consider, among other factors, availability of technology to facilitate the review of ratings, technology or method used for scoring, type of exam, number of eligibles, and complexity of the examination ratings.

Of the 15 jurisdictions surveyed, 60% do not allow applicants to inspect exam scores. The proposed change would still allow for an inspection period, but it would amend the processes to reflect changes in current technology. Similar to the minimum posting periods, the current review periods were established when hiring relied on the mail to communicate with candidates. Now candidates receive their scores by email and can review them instantly.

5. Extension of Eligibility (Rule 112.3)

DHR proposes changing the extension of eligible lists from “up to 1 year” to “based on needs of City or merit factors” with a maximum duration of 48 months. The proposed change would align CBT recruitments with PBT recruitments for consistency. DHR does not expect that many eligible lists will require a longer duration. However, the proposed change would provide flexibility in the event of another disaster similar to COVID-19.

6. Exhaustion of the List (Rule 113.6)

DHR requests that the Human Resources Director be given authority to declare eligible lists exhausted in cases where there are fewer eligible candidates than vacant positions in the class. This authority would eliminate repetitive certification procedures for subsequent positions when responses to recent Notice of Inquiries (NOI) yielded insufficient interest to fill the vacancies.

For example, from December 2021 to March 2022 the Department of Public Works (DPW) requested referrals for 29 positions against the current list for class 7514 General Laborer where 29 eligibles were remaining. The majority of the eligibles did not respond or express interest. In May of 2022, DPW had 23 additional 7514 vacancies. These positions had the exact same attributes as the 29 previously referred. Again, the majority of the eligibles did not respond or express interest. By being able to declare the list as exhausted after the first NOI, DPW would then be able to initiate a new recruitment with a likely larger pool of candidates to meet the number of vacant positions.

7. Notice of Inquiry (Rule 113.10.2 and 113.10.3)

DHR proposes removing the specified number of days to respond to a NOI, instead providing the Human Resources Director the administrative authority to determine the minimum period. In considering the minimum period, the Human Resources Director shall consider, among other factors, availability of technology to respond, number of eligible and complexity of selection procedures.

Similar to the posting period and review of rating periods, the five business days for candidates to express interest was established when hiring was dependent on the United States Postal Service to communicate with candidates. Improvements in technology have allowed candidates to receive information electronically within minutes of sending communication.

Only 20% of jurisdictions in the study are required to survey eligibles for all positions. The City of Los Angeles and Santa Clara County, which also have more than 20,000 employees, are not required to survey eligibles for positions. The proposed change would align the City with other large public sector jurisdictions.

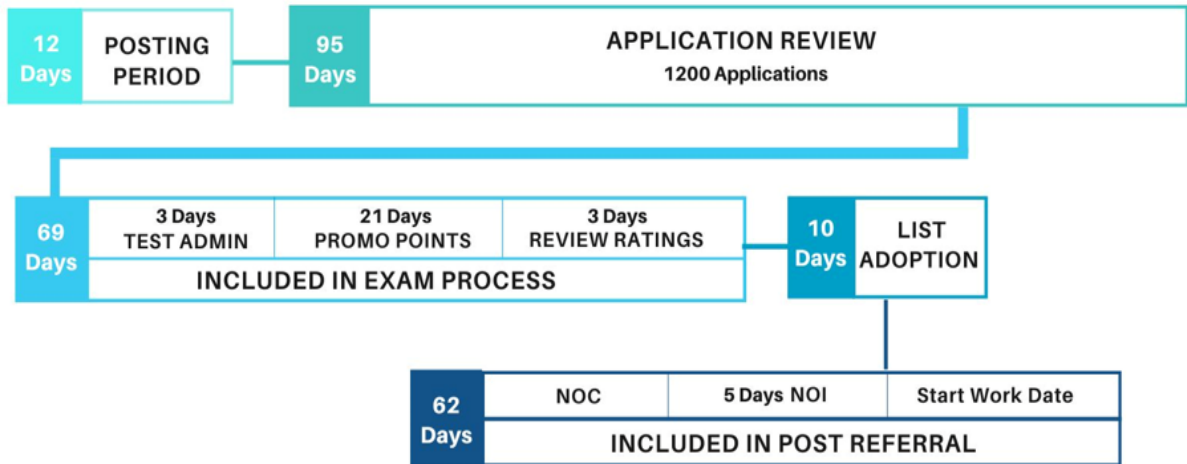

Shortening the rating period and timeline for responding to an NOI will allow the City to capture the ideal candidates more quickly rather than having to wait five business days for candidates to verify the calculation of exam scores and another five business days for them to express interest after list adoption.

Potential Process Improvements from Implementation of Proposed Rule Changes

If all of the changes proposed by DHR were adopted, there would be a significant reduction in the initial phases of the selection process. The example that follows illustrates the point.

The 1404 Clerk classification has an average annual vacancy rate of 12. The current 10-business-day posting period required the city to post for 12 days (10 business day plus 2 weekend days) and resulted in 1,200 applications for 12 vacancies. This recruitment produced significantly more applications than the number of available positions. A more reasonable number would be a few hundred applications resulting in a list of approximately 120 eligible candidates; a ten-to-one candidate to vacancy ratio. The flexibility to shape the specifics of the recruitment to meet the expected number of vacancies will help the City fill positions more quickly and reduce the loss of potential candidates due to long hiring processes. In 2018, the time to hire a 1404 Clerk was 250 days.

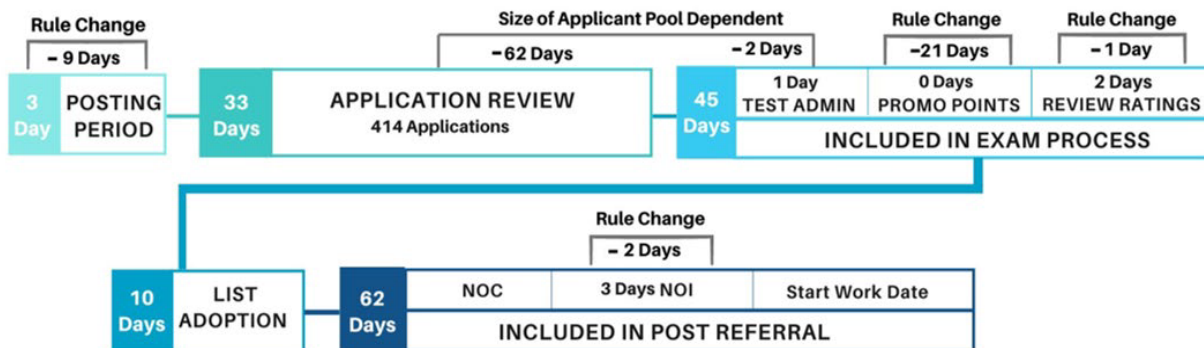

2018 Recruitment Timeline: 250 total days

If the proposed rule changes were adopted, the time to fill could be reduced significantly. Two scenarios showing these options follow:

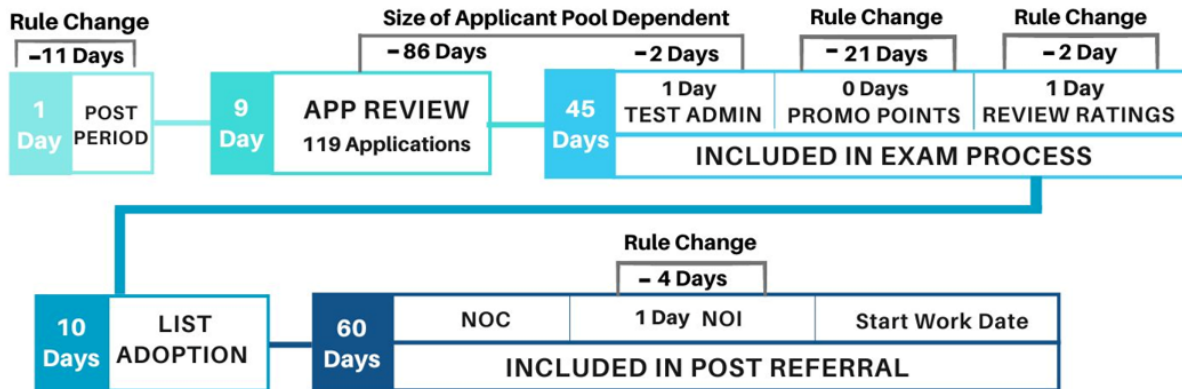

Timeline A: in which the posting period was reduced to three days and the time to hire was reduced by 97 days.

Timeline A: 153 total days with 97 Days Saved

Timeline B: in which the posting period was reduced to one day and the time to hire was reduced by 125 days.

Timeline B: 125 total days with 125 Days Saved

Taken together, these proposed rule changes could make a significant difference in the City’s vacancy rate, and reduce the time to hire by months, while continuing to build robust and diverse applicant pools.

Authority

Pursuant to Charter Section 10.100, the CSC is specifically “charged with the duty of providing qualified persons for appointment to the service of the City and County.” Under Charter Section 10.101, the CSC is responsible for adopting rules, policies, and procedures to carry out the civil service merit system provisions of the Charter, including those governing examinations, eligibility, certification of eligible, and appointments.

Charter Section 10.102 provides that:

Pursuant to and in accordance with policies, rules and procedures of the Civil Services Commission governing the merit system, the Department of Human Resources shall be the personnel department for the City and County and shall determine appointments on the basis of merit and fitness as shown by appropriate test and, except as specifically set forth in this Charter, shall perform all tests, duties and functions previously performed by the Civil Service Commission, including but not limited to authority to recruit, select, certify, appoint, [...] and other related personnel activities in order to maintain an effective and responsive work force.

Conclusion

During the October 17, 2022 Commission meeting, the Commission inquired if there was “low hanging fruit” that could bring quick improvements to in hiring. The proposed Civil Service Rule changes are initial improvements to allow San Francisco Human Resources to decrease the time it takes to fill positions and to standardize processes across permanent civil service recruitments. DHR is concurrently pursuing administrative and process changes that do not require Civil Service action. In addition DHR anticipates returning to the Commission with additional proposed changes in the 3rd quarter of Fiscal Year 2022-23.

Recommendation

DHR respectfully requests the Commission accept the report and post the proposed amended Rules. DHR will then meet and confer with Labor on potential impacts of the proposed changes.

The candidate shall then proceed with the examination. If such appeal is sustained, the rating by the challenged person shall not be computed in the final rating of the candidate and the rating of the candidate shall be that of the unchallenged raters. If more than one-half of the raters are successfully challenged, a new rating board shall be constituted, unless more than one rating board has been convened for the examination, in which case the candidate shall be examined by an alternate rating board of equal number.
- 2) An appeal based on the conduct of the raters must be made in writing and filed with the Human Resources Director not later than the second (2nd) business day after the examination was held and must be based on a claim of bias, malfeasance, or misfeasance of board members; documented inconsistencies, or any questions propounded by the raters which occur during any examination which require an answer in conflict with any Federal, State or City and County laws, rules, or regulations. Sec. 111.15 Inspection-Review of Ratings by Participants

- 111.15.1 Composite ratings for examinations administered under this section shall be available for a minimum period as determined by the Human Resources Director of two (2) working days during which period each participant may inspect review their own ratings. Failure to state the specific grounds for the appeal and provide facts shall nullify the appeal.
- 111.15.3 All appeals properly filed under this section shall be resolved in accordance with the appeal provisions of these Rules. Appeals shall not be considered merely because candidates believe they are entitled to a higher score. Neither the Commission nor the Human Resources Director shall substitute their judgment for the judgment of the raters. Ratings of less than the minimum passing score shall not be raised to more than the minimum passing score.
- 111.15.4 No evidence or documents shall be presented, which were not presented to the raters, unless the candidate was denied the opportunity to do so.

- 6) The board may consider relevant documents such as specified in examination announcements.
- 7) In all qualifications appraisal interviews, the same standards shall apply to all candidates who appear for the same class.

- 9) No applicant for public employment shall be questioned as to political views, religious beliefs, labor affiliations, or racial extraction.
- 10) Recordings of qualifications appraisal interviews shall be retained only until all ratings become final and any timely litigation based thereon has been resolved. - 11) In the event of any challenge of an examiner or of any ratings in qualifications appraisal interviews, all other candidates whose standing in the examination may be affected shall be notified of the challenge.

The candidate shall then proceed with the interview. If such challenge is sustained by action of the Commission following denial by the Human Resources Director, the rating by the challenged person shall not be computed in the final rating of the candidate and the rating of the candidate shall be that of the unchallenged members of the examining board. If more than one-half of the board members are successfully challenged, then the Human Resources Director shall cancel this session and a new board shall be constituted, unless more than one panel of examiners has been convened for the examination, in which case the candidate shall be examined by an alternate panel of equal number.
- 3) Any appeal or challenge of the conduct of the qualifications appraisal board based on a claim of bias, malfeasance, or misfeasance of board members must be made in writing and presented to the representative of the Examination Unit not later than the second (2nd) business day on which the qualifications appraisal interview was held. Challenges based on bias, malfeasance, or misfeasance not filed in this two (2) day period cannot be considered. Such challenges must state the grounds upon which the challenge is based. Failure to state the specific grounds for the challenge shall nullify the challenge. All challenges properly filed under this section shall be resolved in accordance with the provisions of these Rules before the identification sheets of those admitted to the oral examination are opened and scores of the participants are known.
- 4) The Commission, in acting on a challenge or appeal of the conduct of the qualification appraisal board, shall consider only the applications, records, and questions and answers which constitute the record of the qualifications appraisal interview. The Commission will sustain protests only when the candidate presents evidence that clearly substantiates a charge of bias, malfeasance, or misfeasance.
- 5) The decision of the Civil Service Commission on this subject shall be final.
- 6) In the absence of a challenge under this section or upon a decision by the Commission under this section, later challenges shall be precluded.

The identity of the examiner giving any mark or grade in a qualification appraisal interview shall not be disclosed.
- 2) Any challenges shall be filed in writing within the inspection period and shall be limited to:
 - failure of the qualifications appraisal board to apply uniform standards; and

- 3) All challenges properly filed under this section shall be resolved in accordance with the provisions of these Rules. The Human Resources Director shall not consider challenges merely because candidates believe they are entitled to a higher score. The Human Resources Director will not substitute her/his judgment for the judgment of the qualifications appraisal interviewers. Ratings by a qualifications appraisal board of less than the minimum passing score shall not be raised to more than the minimum passing score.
- 4) No evidence or documents supportive of qualifications shall be presented to the Human Resources Director which were not presented to the qualifications appraisal board unless the candidate was denied the opportunity to do so.

In establishing the minimum period, the Human Resources Director shall consider, among other factors, availability of technology to facilitate the review of ratings, technology or method used for scoring, type of exam, number of eligibles, and complexity of the examination ratings. The identity of the examiner giving any mark or grade shall not be disclosed.

111A.24.3 The Human Resources Director may adopt an eligible list pending the resolution of any appeal, and may certify to the appointing officer the names of eligibles available for appointment in accordance with the established certification rule. Resolutions of appeals shall not affect earlier hires from the eligible list.

Sec. 111A.25 Maintenance of Eligibility

Eligibles who fail to possess or maintain the qualifications required by law and/or by the terms of the examination announcement under which they participated shall forfeit their eligibility. The Human Resources Director is authorized to remove eligibles from an eligible list who have failed to maintain qualifications and/or may restore eligibles to an eligible list based on qualifications or to comply with Civil Service Commission Rules, policy and/or action.

Sec. 111A.26 Management of Eligible Lists

- 111A.26.1 The Human Resources Director shall have the right to correct errors on an eligible list or amend an eligible list as a result of the outcome of an appeal or if required by Civil Service Commission Rules or other legal requirements. - 111A.27.3 The use of such rosters shall be specified on the examination announcement and shall not be subject to appeal to the Civil Service Commission.

Rule 111A

Position-Based Testing

Article VII: Certification of Eligibles

Applicability: Article VII, Rule 111A shall apply to examinations designated to the Position-Based Testing Program and shall apply to employees in all classes except the Uniformed Ranks of the Police and Fire Departments, and MTA Service-Critical positions or classes.

Sec. 111A.28 Certification

The Department of Human Resources shall certify to the appointing officer the names of eligibles available for appointment in accordance with the established certification rule. Except for circumstances beyond the control of the Department of Human Resources, the initial Notice of Certification to eligibles shall be issued within fifteen (15) business days from the date of adoption of an eligible list.

Sec. 111A.29 Certification of Eligibles – Minimum Allowable Certification Rule

111A.29.1 The minimum (i.e. most restrictive) certification rule shall be the Rule of Three Scores.

111A.29.2 The most restrictive formula for application of the Rule of Three Scores shall be:

1) When there is one (1) approved personnel requisition on file for a class, the Department of Human Resources shall certify to the appointing officer the number of scores equal to the number of the certification rule. For example, three (3) scores will be certified for a position with a certification Rule of Three Scores.

2) When there are two (2) or more approved personnel requisitions on file for the same class, the number of scores certified shall be equal to the number of positions to be filled plus the number of scores in the certification rule minus one. For example, if twelve (12) requisitions are to be filled under a Rule of Three Scores, the number of scores certified is $12 + 3 - 1 = 14$.

Sec. 111A.30 Establishment of the Certification Rule for Position-Based Testing

- 111A.30.1 The Human Resources Director and/or representative is authorized to discuss and pursue agreement with employee organizations as to the certification rule applicable to an eligible list resulting from an examination in the Position-Based Testing Program, provided however, that the minimum rule cannot be fewer than the Rule of Three Scores. Nothing in this Section is intended to change the scope of bargaining specified by Charter or applicable law.
- 111A.30.2 Unless agreed between the employee organization representing the class and the Human Resources Director, the Rule of Three Scores shall be used exclusively, except as set forth in Rule 113, Article III.
- 111A.30.3 The Certification Rule shall be specified as a term of the examination announcement. Appeals of the Certification Rule shall not be permitted.

Rule 111A

Position-Based Testing

Article VIII: Appeals of Examination Processes

Applicability: Article VIII, Rule 111A shall apply to examinations designated to the Position-Based Testing Program and shall apply to employees in all classes except the Uniformed Ranks of the Police and Fire Departments, and MTA Service-Critical positions or classes.

Sec. 111A.31 Substance of Appeals

111A.31.1 An action by the Department of Human Resources under Rule 111A may be appealed by a party alleging injury by that action as provided in this Article VIII. For each appeal the appellant must state the specific grounds upon which the appeal is based, cite the specific Civil Service Commission Rule or Department of Human Resources Policy that the appellant contends was violated by the action which is the subject of the appeal, provide facts including available documents to support the appeal, and demonstrate a rational relationship between the alleged injury suffered by the appellant as a result of the action being appealed and the alleged violation of Rule or Policy. Failure to meet all of the above requirements to support the appeal may be sufficient grounds for denial of the appeal by the Civil Service Commission.

111A.31.2 An appeal that objects to ratings or rankings based solely on the candidate's belief that he or she is entitled to a higher or passing score shall not be considered. Neither the Human Resources Director nor the Civil Service Commission shall substitute his, her or its judgment for the judgment of qualified raters.

Sec. 111A.32 Timeliness of Appeals

Protests and appeals that are not submitted within the prescribed time limits shall not be considered.

Sec. 111A.33 Continuance of Examinations with Appeals Pending

The Human Resources Director may proceed with any and all phases of the Position-Based Testing process pending an appeal.

Sec. 111A.34 Authority to Rule on Appeals111A.34.1 Civil Service Commission

Appeals to the Civil Service Commission may occur at three (3) points in the examination process: (1) after the examination announcement has been issued, (2) after the examination has been administered and prior to the posting of the Tentative Eligible List Score Report and (3) after the merging of eligible lists in different classes. Appeals of the examination announcement may be based only on challenges to the position description and/or the minimum qualifications. Appeals after the examination administration may be based only on claims of inconsistency in examination administration, bias of raters and/or failure of raters to apply uniform standards. Appeals of merging of eligible lists in different classes may be based only on claims of substantial differences in the knowledge, skills and abilities required to perform the essential functions of the positions. Decisions of the Civil Service Commission on these examination matters will be final.

111A.34.2 Human Resources Director

All other appeals may be made to the Human Resources Director whose decision will be final.

Sec. 111A.35 Appeals to the Civil Service Commission111A.35.1 Appeals of the Examination Announcement

1) The standard of review for appeals under this Section shall be abuse of discretion in establishing the position description, the minimum qualifications and/or the certification rule when the certification rule was not reached by mutual agreement with the employee organization representing the tested class. In determining abuse of discretion, the Civil Service Commission must find that the Human Resources Director made decisions beyond his/her authority or had no rational basis for his/her decision.

2) Appeals under this Section must be submitted directly to the Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission and must be received in the Civil Service Commission office by close of business on the fifth (5th) business day after the examination announcement issuance date.

3) Appeals must be in writing and shall include a statement of the specific component(s) or item(s) of the examination announcement being contested and specific reason(s) why adoption of the cited portions of the examination announcement constitutes abuse of discretion by the Human Resources Director. To the extent possible, all supporting documentation must be submitted with the written appeal.

Sec. 111A.35 Appeals to the Civil Service Commission (cont.)111A.35.1 Appeals of the Examination Announcement (cont.)

4) Upon receipt of an appeal, the Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission shall immediately forward a copy of the appeal to the Department of Human Resources. The Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission shall place the appeal on the Civil Service Commission agenda for the next Regular Commission Meeting consistent with the Brown Act, Sunshine Ordinance and other applicable law. The Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission in consultation with the President may calendar the appeal at a Special Meeting prior to the Regular Meeting of the Civil Service Commission. The appellant and other parties shall be notified of the particulars of the hearing in accordance with the procedures established by the Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission.

5) The Human Resources Director or representative may take actions to resolve the appeal with the appellant before the scheduled Commission hearing date and forward to the Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission the documented resolution prior to the scheduled Commission hearing date. The Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission shall report the resolution to the Civil Service Commission at the scheduled hearing.

6) The Civil Service Commission shall consider an unresolved appeal on the date it is calendared for hearing except under extraordinary circumstances and upon mutual agreement between the appellant and the Department of Human Resources. The Civil Service Commission shall rule on the appeal at the hearing. The Commission's action on the appeal shall be final and no reconsideration requests shall be allowed.

111A.35.2 Appeals of Inconsistency of Examination Administration, Bias of Raters and/or Failure of Raters to Apply Uniform Standards

1) Appeals shall be based solely on claims that the inconsistency in examination administration, bias of the raters and/or failure of the raters to apply uniform standards compromised either the validity or the reliability of the examination. Appeals shall include a statement of the specific facts that demonstrate that the validity or reliability of the examination was compromised, and cite the specific Civil Service Commission Rule or Department of Human Resources Policy that was violated. For the purposes of appeals under this Section, validity is generally defined as the establishment of the relationship between a test device or other selection procedure and performance on the job; and reliability is generally defined as the consistency of measurement of the test device or selection procedure.

Sec. 111A.35 Appeals to the Civil Service Commission (cont.)111A.35.2 Appeals of Inconsistency of Examination Administration, Bias of Raters and/or Failure of Raters to Apply Uniform Standards (cont.)

- 2) Appeals must be in writing and must be submitted directly to the Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission. The appeal must be received in the Civil Service Commission office by close of business on the fifth (5th) business day from the postmarked date (or e-mail date) of the written notice of examination results.
- 3) Upon receipt of an appeal, the Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission shall immediately forward a copy of the appeal to the Department of Human Resources. The Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission shall place the appeal on the Civil Service Commission agenda for the next Regular Commission Meeting consistent with the Brown Act, Sunshine Ordinance and other applicable law. The Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission in consultation with the President may calendar the appeal at a Special Meeting prior to the Regular Meeting of the Civil Service Commission. The appellant and other parties shall be notified in accordance with the procedures established by the Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission.
- 4) The Human Resources Director or representative may take actions to resolve the appeal with the appellant before the scheduled Commission hearing date and forward to the Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission the documented resolution prior to the scheduled Commission hearing date. The Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission shall report the resolution to the Civil Service Commission at the scheduled hearing.
- 5) The Civil Service Commission shall consider an unresolved appeal on the date it is calendared for hearing except under extraordinary circumstances and upon mutual agreement between the appellant and Department of Human Resources. The Civil Service Commission shall rule on the appeal at the hearing. The Commission's action on the appeal shall be final and no reconsideration requests shall be allowed. In order to prevail on an appeal under this Section, the appellant must establish by a preponderance of the evidence, i.e. more likely than not, that the Rule or Policy at issue was violated and that the violation caused a compromise of the validity or reliability of the examination. The Commission's action on the appeal shall be final and no reconsideration requests shall be allowed.

Sec. 111A.35 Appeals to the Civil Service Commission (cont.)111A.35.3 Appeals of Merging of Eligible Lists of Different Classes

- 1) The standard of review for appeals under this Section shall be abuse of discretion in merging eligible lists of different classes. Appeals shall include a statement of the specific facts that demonstrate that the merging of eligible lists in different classes is not supported by job analyses that demonstrate that the same or similar knowledge, skills and abilities are required to perform the essential functions of the positions.
- 2) Appeals must be in writing and must be submitted directly to the Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission. The appeal must be received in the Civil Service Commission office by close of business on the fifth (5th) business day from the postmarked date (or e-mail date) of the written notice of the merging of eligible lists.
- 3) Upon receipt of an appeal, the Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission shall immediately forward a copy of the appeal to the Department of Human Resources. The Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission shall place the appeal on the Civil Service Commission agenda for the next Regular Commission Meeting consistent with the Brown Act, Sunshine Ordinance and other applicable law. The Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission in consultation with the President may calendar the appeal at a Special Meeting prior to the Regular Meeting of the Civil Service Commission. The appellant and other parties shall be notified in accordance with the procedures established by the Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission.
- 4) The Human Resources Director or representative may take actions to resolve the appeal with the appellant before the scheduled Commission hearing date and forward to the Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission the documented resolution prior to the scheduled Commission hearing date. The Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission shall report the resolution to the Civil Service Commission at the scheduled hearing.
- 5) The Civil Service Commission shall consider an unresolved appeal on the date it is calendared for hearing except under extraordinary circumstances and upon mutual agreement between the appellant and the Department of Human Resources. The Civil Service Commission shall rule on the appeal at the hearing. The Commission's action on the appeal shall be final and no reconsideration requests shall be allowed.

Sec. 111A.36 Appeals to the Human Resources Director111A.36.1 Protests at the Examination Site

1) An examination participant may protest the assignment of a rater to his/her board or panel based on a claim of the rater's inability to rate the examination participant competently or without bias. The protest of the rater must be made to the designated representative of the Human Resources Director present at the examination prior to participation in this phase of the examination. If no protest is made, then no appeal of the assignment of the rater will be permitted.

2) An examination participant may submit a protest of a problem occurring at an examination site, such as, but not limited to equipment malfunction or disturbance of the examination process, that interfered with the examination participant's performance in the examination. Such protest must be made to the designated representative of the Human Resources Director present at the examination site immediately upon encountering or experiencing the problem and before leaving the examination site. If no protest is submitted, then the Human Resources Director may refuse an appeal of a problem occurring at the examination site.

3) The decision or action in response to a protest at the examination site may be appealed to the Human Resources Director. The appeal must be submitted in writing and must be received at the Department of Human Resources not later than the fifth (5th) business day after the candidate's examination date.

111A.36.2 Appeal of Accuracy of the Calculation of Examination Scores and/or Ranking

An appeal of the accuracy of the calculation of examination scores and/or rank must be submitted directly to the Human Resources Director or representative within the period designated for review of ratings (see Section 111A.22). 311.8.3 No board member shall rate a candidate who is related to that person or rate a candidate if any strong personal or working association exists between that candidate and the board member so that it would be difficult to make an impartial rating or that it would create an appearance of impropriety.

311.8.4 No candidate shall discuss her/his candidacy or any relationship thereto with the qualifications appraisal board members prior to the completion of all parts of the examination(s) and the final adoption of the list(s) of eligibles resulting therefrom.

311.8.9 Recordings of qualifications appraisal interviews shall be retained only until all ratings become final and any timely litigation based thereon has been resolved. Sec. 311.12 Qualifications Appraisal Board Interview – Challenges

311.12.1 In the Event of Challenge

In the event of any challenge of a board member or any ratings in qualification appraisal interviews, all other candidates whose standing in the examination may be affected shall be notified of the challenge.

311.12.2 Challenge of Board Members

1) A board member may excuse herself or himself from rating any candidate when, in the judgment of the board member, it would be difficult to rate the candidate impartially. If possible, the excused board member shall be replaced by an alternate with the same qualifications.

2) Any challenge as to personal bias or competence of a person serving as a board member in the qualifications appraisal interview based upon prior knowledge of or acquaintance with a board member shall be made by a candidate to the representative of the Department of Human Resources or authorized representative immediately prior to participation in this phase of the examination. The candidate shall then proceed with the interview. If such challenge is sustained by action of the Civil Service Commission following denial by the Human Resources Director, the rating by the challenged board member shall not be computed in the final rating of the candidate and the rating of the candidate shall be that of the remaining members of the examining board.

If more than one-half of the board members are successfully challenged, then the Human Resources Director shall cancel this session and a new board shall be constituted, unless more than one board has been convened for the examination, in which case the candidate shall be examined by an alternate board of equal number.

3) Any challenge of the conduct of the qualifications appraisal board based on a claim of bias, malfeasance, or misfeasance of board members must be made in writing and submitted to the Fire Department Examination Unit within two (2) business days from when the qualifications appraisal interview was held. Challenges based on bias, malfeasance or misfeasance not filed in this two (2) day period cannot be considered. Such challenges must state the specific grounds upon which the challenge is based. Failure to state the specific grounds for the challenge shall nullify the challenge. All challenges properly filed under this section shall be resolved by the Human Resources Director in accordance with the provisions of these Rules before the examinations of the participants are scored. The protest time periods in Section 311.11 do not apply to this section.

All challenges properly filed under this section shall be resolved by the Human Resources Director in accordance with the provisions of these Rules before the examinations of the participants are scored. The protest time periods in Section 311.11 do not apply to this section.

4) The Civil Service Commission, in acting on an appeal of the qualification appraisal board, shall consider only the applications, records, tape recordings, and questions and answers which constitute the record of the qualification appraisal board interview. The Civil Service Commission will sustain challenges only when the candidate presents evidence that clearly substantiates a charge of bias, malfeasance, or misfeasance.

5) The decision of the Civil Service Commission on this subject shall be final.

6) In absence of a challenge under this section or upon a decision by the Civil Service Commission under this section, later challenges shall be precluded.

311.12.3 ~~Inspection-Review~~ of Ratings in Qualifications Appraisal Board Interviews by Participants

In establishing the minimum period, the Human Resources Director shall consider, among other factors, availability of technology to facilitate the review of ratings, type of exam, number of eligibles, and complexity of the examination ratings. During the ~~inspection-review~~ period, participants will be able to determine how their final score was computed. The identity of the board member giving any mark or grade in a qualification appraisal interview shall not be disclosed.

2) Any challenges shall be filed in writing within the inspection period and shall be limited to:

- failure of the qualifications appraisal board to apply uniform standards; and
 - any questions propounded by the board which occur during a qualifications appraisal interview which require an answer in conflict with any Federal, State, or City and County laws, rules, or regulations which apply to the government of the City and County of San Francisco, the Department of Human Resources, and/or the Civil Service Commission.
- 3) All challenges properly filed under this section shall be resolved in accordance with the provisions of these Rules. The Human Resources Director shall not consider challenges merely because candidates believe they are entitled to a higher score. The Human Resources Director will not substitute her/his judgment for the judgment of the qualification appraisal interviewers. Ratings by a qualification appraisal board of less than the minimum passing score shall not be raised to more than the minimum passing score.
- 4) No evidence or documents supportive of qualifications shall be presented to the Human Resources Director which were not presented to the qualifications appraisal board unless the candidate was denied the opportunity to do so.
- 5) The decision of the Human Resources Director on this subject shall be final.
- 6) In the absence of a challenge under this section or upon a decision by the Human Resources Director under this section, later challenges shall be precluded.

Rule 312

Eligible Lists - Fire Department

Article III: Holdover Rosters and Return to Duty

Applicability: Article III, Rule 312 shall apply to all classes of the Uniformed Ranks of the San Francisco Fire Department.

Sec. 312.17 Holdover Status and Return to Duty

312.17.1 Holdover Roster - General Requirements

- 1) Subject to the provisions of this Rule, permanent or probationary civil service appointees who are laid off or placed on an involuntary leave of absence shall be designated as holdovers.
- 2) The names of holdovers shall be ranked on a holdover roster for the class or classes from which layoff occurs and in the order of total seniority in the class in the City and County service. Seniority prior to resignation or termination shall not be used in determining holdover rights in a class.
- 3) Holdovers shall be returned to duty in rank order from holdover rosters.
- 4) Holdovers shall, for a period of five (5) years from the date of layoff, have preference for appointment over eligibles on civil service lists, or employees requesting transfer, reinstatement, or reappointment. The Human Resources Director, upon review of all the circumstances, may extend the holdover status for such specified period of time as he/she may deem proper.
- 5) Holdover rosters shall be canvassed in the following order: first, permanent holdover rosters; then, temporary holdover rosters.
- 6) Permanent holdovers shall be returned to duty in temporary positions before temporary holdovers. Permanent holdovers shall displace any temporary or part-time exempt appointee in the same class in any City and County department. Permanent holdovers returned to duty in temporary positions shall retain their status on the permanent holdover roster. In the event of a displacement, the least senior temporary or part-time exempt appointee in the City and County service shall be laid off first.
- 7) Permanent holdovers in classes with citywide seniority for layoff purposes shall be entitled to displace only the least senior permanent employee in that class in City service. Holdovers who waive such appointment shall remain on the holdover list for subsequent permanent appointment to vacant positions, but may accept a temporary position in the class, if available.
- 8) Exceptions to Return to Duty in Rank Order

If two (2) or more approved requisitions are on file, the Human Resources Director may permit holdovers in line for appointment, and in accordance with their standing on the roster, to select from the available requisitions the positions to which they desire appointment. In cases where there are holdovers on rosters who would be reached for appointment on requisitions, the Human Resources Director may consult with appointing officers and employees involved, and if it is in the best interest of the service, may offer said positions to holdovers so as to make it possible for them to return to duty in the department from which laid off.

9) Holdovers who are notified that they are being returned to duty are required to respond to the Department of Human Resources within five (5) business days of the date of notification. The Human Resources Director may extend the time response period beyond five (5) business days. Failure of a holdover to respond within the time limits shall be considered a refusal of the offer and forfeiture of holdover rights.

10) Except as otherwise provided in these Rules, holdovers who fail to possess and maintain the qualifications required by law and by the terms of the examination announcement under which they participated shall forfeit their eligibility.

11) In all cases of change of address, the Department of Human Resources must be notified in writing separately for each class involved. Notice of change of address to the Post Office and/or the employee's current department only, shall not be a reasonable excuse for special consideration in case of failure to respond to notice of return to duty within time limits.

12) Except as otherwise directed by the Human Resources Director, holdovers being returned to duty shall not be required to pass a new medical examination.

13) A properly completed copy of the designated report of layoff or involuntary leave of absence form shall be forwarded to the Department of Human Resources as soon as possible (in advance of the action if possible) so that the Department of Human Resources may record the action and place the employee's name on a holdover roster for immediate consideration for return to duty.

14) Late reports of layoff shall not interfere with nor affect the rights of holdovers to whom notices of return to duty have already been mailed and who have been or may be returned to duty in response to such notices.

15) If there is no holdover roster for a class or if the holdover roster is exhausted, the Human Resources Director may authorize that a holdover be returned to duty from another holdover roster deemed suitable to temporarily provide the required service. If no other roster is available, the position shall be offered to eligibles on regular civil service eligible lists or to individuals requesting transfer, reinstatement or reappointment.

16) Holdovers returned to duty shall be reinstated with accrued compensatory time, if any, and with their original anniversary date for the purposes of computing sick leave and vacation benefits.

312.17.2 Holdover - Temporary Appointees

- 1) Appointees certified from an eligible list who have satisfactorily served under temporary appointment shall upon expiration of the list be designated a "temporary holdover."
- 2) Resignation from temporary appointment from a holdover roster or refusal of temporary appointment from a holdover roster cancels all temporary holdover rights in that class.

312.17.3 Holdover - Permanent and Probationary Appointees

- 1) A permanent or probationary appointee to a promotional or entrance position who is laid off shall be designated a "permanent holdover" and shall be returned to duty in a position in the class from which laid off from a holdover roster as provided in this Rule.
- 2) A permanent holdover returned to duty on a permanent basis in a department other than the one from which laid off shall serve a new probationary period.
- 3) Return to duty of a permanent holdover to a position in the class from which laid off shall be subject to the following conditions:
 - a) Permanent Vacancy - A permanent holdover who refuses an offer to return to duty on a permanent basis in the department from which laid off shall forfeit all holdover rights in that class, and shall be removed from all rosters for that class. Such refusal of return to duty shall be deemed a resignation.
 - b) Temporary Vacancy - Permanent holdovers may refuse an offer to return to duty on a temporary basis in the department from which laid off without affecting future offers to be returned to duty. Waiver of temporary appointment shall not be removed without the permission of the Human Resources Director.
 - c) Permanent holdovers may refuse an offer to return to duty on a permanent or temporary basis in a department other than the department from which laid off without affecting future offers to be returned to duty. Such departmental waivers shall not be withdrawn without the approval of the Human Resources Director.
 - d) A permanent holdover who was laid off during the probationary period and who is returned to duty in the department from which laid off shall complete the remaining period of probationary service.
- 4) Transferees who are laid off during the probationary period shall be ranked on the permanent holdover roster for the class in accordance with their seniority in the class in the City and County service.
- 5) Permanent holdovers who resign or are released during the probationary period may be returned to the holdover roster from which appointed subject to the provisions of these Rules. Such holdovers shall not displace any current permanent or probationary employees, but shall remain on the list for subsequent permanent appointment to vacant positions and may accept a temporary position in the class, if available.

Rule 313

Certification of Eligibles - Fire Department

Article II: Certification Rules - Entry and Promotive

Applicability: Article II, Rule 313 shall apply to all classes of the Uniformed Ranks of the San Francisco Fire Department.

Sec. 313.2 Certification of Eligibles – General Policy

313.2.1 The Civil Service Commission endorses and supports the broadening of the Rules governing the certification of eligibles from civil service eligible lists and considers this broadening as an increase in opportunities for appointing officers to select employees who are best suited to perform the duties of specific positions and to ensure equal employment opportunity to all persons. Selection of employees from eligible lists shall be based on merit and fitness without regard to relationship, race, religion, sex, national origin, ethnicity, age, disability, gender identity, political affiliation, sexual orientation, ancestry, marital status, color, medical condition or other non-merit factors or otherwise prohibited nepotism or favoritism. Appointing officers and their designees shall be responsible for establishing non-discriminatory selection procedures which may include scheduling each interested eligible for interview, conducting interviews by a diverse panel, asking job-related questions, maintaining documentation of selection criteria, and reviewing the proposed selection with the department's Equal Employment Opportunity Officer or with the Department of Human Resources Equal Employment Opportunity Unit. Unless otherwise instructed by the Civil Service Commission, the Fire Department shall annually report to the Civil Service Commission on the selection process. In addition to the annual reports, the Department shall make regular reports as requested by the Civil Service Commission on merit system issues such as recruitment, examination, and certification and selection procedures. For further clarification, prior to the issuance of any job announcement, secondary criteria shall be presented to the Civil Service Commission for its approval in advance and will be discussed in open session with all parties interested.

313.2.2 In implementing this Rule, the Human Resources Director shall:

- adhere to all rules, policies, procedures, and directives of the Civil Service Commission and all relevant Charter provisions of the City & County of San Francisco, and
- ensure that such rules, policies, procedures, directives, and Charter provisions are adhered to by all decentralized units as delegated by the Human Resources Director, and
- take any action necessary to ensure compliance with federal, state and local anti-discrimination laws, ordinances or regulations.

Sec. 313.3 Certification Rules

313.3.1 Rule of Three Scores

- 1) The Department of Human Resources shall certify to the appointing officer the names of eligibles with the three highest scores on the list of eligibles for the position who are available for appointment.
- 2) Except as otherwise may be provided, when there are two (2) or more approved personnel requisitions on file for the same class, the number of scores certified shall be equal to the number of positions to be filled plus two scores. An eligible list adopted under the Rule of Three Scores shall in all cases be exhausted when eligibles standing at less than three (3) scores are available. Use of the eligible list when there is less than the minimum certification available shall be at the discretion of the appointing officer.

313.3.2 Rule of Three or More Scores

- 1) The names of all eligibles standing at a specified number of scores with a minimum of at least those eligibles with the three highest scores shall be certified to each available position.
- 2) Except as otherwise may be provided, when there are two (2) or more approved personnel requisitions on file for the same class, the number of scores certified shall be equal to the number of positions to be filled plus the number of scores in the certification rule applicable to the eligible list being certified minus one.

Sec. 313.3.3 Rule of the List

- 1) The names of all eligibles on the eligible list shall be certified to each available position.
- 2) An eligible list adopted under the Rule of the List shall be exhausted when there are less than one third of the number of eligibles on the original list still available, provided however, if the original list had nine (9) or fewer eligibles, at least three (3) eligibles must be available. In the event that application of the one-third formula specified above results in a fraction, the next highest number shall be used. Use of the list when there is less than the minimum certification available shall be at the discretion of the appointing officer.

Sec. 313.3.4 Statistically Valid Grouping (Sliding Band)

- 1) The Department of Human Resources shall certify to the appointing officer the names of eligibles that are within a statistically valid grouping/sliding band of scores (“grouping”).
- 2) The grouping shall be determined through the standard error of the difference (SED) of the examination multiplied by a confidence factor of 1.96. Eligibles within the grouping are considered to be of comparable knowledge, skills and abilities with respect to the areas tested on the examination.
- 3) If at any time, the highest score in the grouping is exhausted, the grouping will slide so that its upper limit rests on the highest score remaining on the list. Any additional eligibles whose scores fall within the new grouping shall be certified to available positions. The grouping shall also slide if all eligibles at the highest score waive or fail to respond within the time limits provided in this Rule.

4) Charter Section 10.101 provides that the minimum rule for the certification of eligibles shall be the Rule of Three Scores. Therefore, if at any time the grouping includes fewer than three scores, then the Department of Human Resource shall certify to the appointing officer the names of eligibles with the three highest scores as described in Section 313.3.1 of this Rule.

5) Selection of an eligible within the grouping shall be made under the authority and direction of the appointing officer.

6) The appointing officer shall develop secondary criteria to guide the selection process.

7) Secondary criteria may include, but need not be limited to experience(s), training and employment history.

8) Secondary criteria shall be job related.

9) Secondary criteria shall not be based on relationship, race, religion, gender, national origin, ethnicity, age, disability, gender identity, political affiliation, sexual orientation, ancestry, marital status, color, medical condition, or other non-merit factors or otherwise prohibited nepotism or favoritism.

Sec. 313.4 Certification Rules – General Provisions Applicable to All Certification Rules

313.4.1 If all eligibles at a score waive appointment or fail to respond within the time limits provided in these Rules, the appointing officer may request supplementary certification(s) from the next highest score(s).

313.4.2 The Certification Rule established at the time of the announcement may be appealed to the Civil Service Commission provided such appeal is received by the Executive Officer by close of business on the fifth (5th) working day (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) following the postmarked mailing date of notification to the appellant. Such appeals shall be limited to an expansion of the Certification Rule beyond the Rule of Three Scores. The decision of the Civil Service Commission shall be final and no reconsideration shall be allowed. Use of the Statistically Valid Grouping under Section 313.3.4 of this Rule applied to a promotive eligible list shall not be subject to appeal.

Sec. 313.5 Certification of Entry Eligible List

The entry level Certification Rule to be utilized shall be established and announced on the examination announcement. For entry level eligible lists, the Department of Human Resources shall certify to the appointing officer the names of eligibles available for appointment under the Rule of Three Scores, Rule of Three or More Scores, Statistically Valid Grouping, or Rule of the List.

Sec. 313.6 Certification of Promotive Eligible List – Statistically Valid Grouping

For a promotive eligible list, the Department of Human Resources shall certify to the appointing officer the names of eligibles available for appointment in the Statistically Valid Grouping under Section 313.3.4 of this Rule.

In establishing the minimum period, the Human Resources Director shall consider, among other factors, the stability and reliability of the messaging platform in sending and receiving notifications.

2) Eligibles are required to notify the Department of Human Resources as to their certification status within seven (7) business days a minimum period after the date of the Notice of Certification as established by the Human Resources Director. In establishing the minimum period, the Human Resources Director shall consider, among other factors, the stability and reliability of the messaging platform in sending and receiving notifications.

3) Departments are required to notify the Department of Human Resources of the results of a certification within twenty (20) business days a minimum period after the date of the Notice of Certification as established by the Human Resources Director. 313.7.3 Extensions

Response period time limits may be extended by the Human Resources Director.

Sec. 313.8 Effect of Failure to Respond

313.8.1 An eligible who fails to respond within the time limits provided shall be placed under general waiver on the eligible list until such time as the waiver is withdrawn in accordance with these Rules.

313.8.2 Except if the Human Resources Director determines that unusual circumstances exist which would create an undue hardship, a department that fails to respond within the time limits provided may be required to present the reasons for the delay to the Commission.

Sec. 313.9 Waivers

313.9.1 General Waivers

An eligible may be placed on an inactive status under general waiver of certification on an eligible list as follows:

- 1) At the eligible's written request. Such waivers shall be effective on the next business day.
- 2) For failure to respond to a Notice of Certification or Inquiry within the prescribed time limits.
- 3) For failure to notify the Department of Human Resources as to the eligible's status within seven (7) days following certification.
- 4) A person appointed to a permanent position shall be under general waiver for all appointments on all eligible lists for the same class. A person appointed to a temporary position shall be under general waiver for temporary appointment on all eligible lists for the same class. Such waiver may not be withdrawn unless ordered by the Human Resources Director.
- 5) For reasons prescribed elsewhere in these Rules.
- 6) An eligible under general waiver shall not be certified to any position on the eligible list until the eligible notifies the Department of Human Resources to withdraw such waiver in writing as prescribed in these Rules. General waivers imposed by the Commission or Human Resources Director may not be removed unless ordered by the Civil Service Commission or Human Resources Director.

313.9.2 Waiver of Part-Time Employment

Any part-time position may be declared by the Human Resources Director to be under conditional waiver and eligibles may then waive certification without penalty for appointment to a full-time position. An eligible who accepts such appointment shall retain eligibility for appointment to a full-time position.

313.9.3 Conditional Waivers

Except as provided by the examination announcement, waiver of certification to positions with unusual employment circumstances or special conditions of employment may be imposed by:

- 1) the eligible to be effective the next business day;
- 2) the Civil Service Commission; or
- 3) the Human Resources Director.

Conditional waivers on an eligible list imposed by the eligible shall remain in force until withdrawn in accordance with these Rules.

313.9.4 Effects of Waivers

- 1) A general or conditional waiver of certification by an eligible having standing on more than one list in the same class shall apply to any existing list for the same class.
- 2) An eligible who waives certification to a position covered by conditional waivers shall not be certified to a position requiring those conditions from that list until such waiver is removed in accordance with the provisions of these Rules.
- 3) Unless otherwise provided in the examination announcement, eligibles may refuse consideration for temporary or permanent appointment from two (2) Notices of Certification. Refusal of consideration from the third (3rd) Notice of Certification shall result in the removal of the eligible's name from that eligible list and all other lists in that class. The non-selection by the department of an available eligible shall not be recorded as a refusal.
- 4) Unless otherwise ordered by the Human Resources Director if one (1) Notice of Certification is issued for more than one (1) department or position and the eligible refuses a position not previously waived, a refusal shall be recorded against the eligible's name on the list.

313.9.5 Withdrawal of Waivers

- 1) Withdrawal of general or conditional waivers imposed by the eligible must be filed in writing with the Department of Human Resources.
- 2) Such requests must be received in Department of Human Resources offices before the close of business on the third (3rd) Friday of the month to be effective the first (1st) business day of the following month. In the event the third (3rd) Friday is a legal holiday, such requests must be received by the close of business on the next business day.
- 3) Withdrawal of waivers which have been imposed by the Commission or the Human Resources Director may be authorized at any time and become effective the first (1st) business day of the following month unless specifically ordered otherwise.
- 4) Withdrawal of waivers shall not interfere with nor affect the rights of eligibles next in line for certification to whom Notices of Certification have already been mailed and who have been or may be appointed in response to such notices.

5) Immediate withdrawal of waiver may be authorized by the Human Resources Director, if it is determined that such immediate withdrawal of waiver is in the best interests of the Service.

Sec. 313.10 Change of Address

In all cases of change of address, the Department of Human Resources must be notified in writing separately for each class involved. Notice of change of address to the Post Office and/or the employee's current department only shall not be a reasonable excuse for special consideration in case of failure to respond to any notice within time limits.
