

CHART OF APPEALABLE DETERMINATIONS

This document is provided for purposes of general guidance only. In all cases, the Board of Appeals is governed by relevant provisions of the San Francisco Charter, San Francisco Codes and applicable rules and regulations. This list is not intended to be exhaustive; there may be types of decisions by City departments not appearing on this list that are appealable to the Board.

In order to get an appeal granted or a permit or determination changed, most cases require a supermajority (4 out of 5 votes) by the commissioners eg. building permits and determinations by the Zoning Administrator.

For certain Planning Commission Determinations, however, only 3 votes are needed to grant an appeal or modify a determination: Section
