3. Program Update

Staff Presenter: Program Officer, Anne Trickey

Program Officer Anne Trickey thanked the Art Vendors who participated at the pop-up at City Hall on Tuesday, December 6th. Overall feedback was generally positive. Anne anticipates a similar event will occur in May 2023.

Anne Trickey also announced that there are more partnership opportunities for Art Vendors from the Mayor’s Office of Economic Workforce Development and City Hall. More information will be shared through the newsletter and lottery notifications.

Art Vendors have provided positive feedback for the current Market Manager. Feedback is being collected by art-vendors@sfgov.org.

Finally, Anne Trickey announced that they have submitted a budget request for the Art Vendor Program and Market Manager. They anticipate that licenses will continue to be free for the next fiscal year.

There was no public comment. Carolyn Kualii noted that there should be more outreach for Artists who previously were unable to join the program due to previous associated costs. Sean Nash offered that the Committee members to provide some help with the outreach.

4a. Screening of New Artists and Additional Crafts

(* - New Street Artist)

During the discussion, Carolyn Kualii asked about the importance of viewing the process of artists because in-person Advisory Committee Meetings would do so. Anne Trickey replied that details of processes can be requested, but were not required by legislation. The important aspect of each Artist’s application is a demonstration that they are creating the
