PUBLIC COMMENT:

Francisco DeCosta, by phone, "I have attended several of your meetings and I understand you are looking forward to hire an inspector general. We are the city and county of San Francisco; we are not just the city of San Francisco; we are the city and county of San Francisco. I see in the comments, I may be wrong, but I feel that it is very important to read our charter. So far, I have participated in a lot in these meetings. The San Francisco Police Department and the Sheriff's department has failed us San Franciscans miserably. And the standard I use, quality of life issues. All our streets are pandemonium, in our jails is pandemonium." (at the 30 second warning, caller did not say anything further).

SHERIFF'S CHIEF REPORT

Sheriff Paul Miyamoto appeared and presented on the Sheriff's Office strategic plan and goals, proposed budget submission for FY 23-24 and FY 24-25, and recruitment summary and strategy including videos on administering Narcan/Naloxone and SFSO recruitment.

Questions and comments by President Wechter, Members Soo, Brookter, Palmer and Vice President Carrion.

PUBLIC COMMENT:

Francisco DeCosta, by phone, "I have been listening to all of you. I was wondering how are you going to have the Sheriff if you have the ability to do a needless assessment? For example, we were supposed to demolish 850 Bryant, that is not a jail that meets any standards. In the slides, nothing was shown about San Bruno jail. Nothing was shown about the General Hospital. Nothing much about our courts. Our sheriff's also work for the San Francisco Public Utilities Commission helping them. So, you commissioners, what experience do you all have to help the Sheriff? He is understaffed with very little resources. So how you are going to help the Sheriff? I've been monitoring this situation for 40 years. I had a very good relationship with Michael Hennessey, he was there forever but a very good man. A very good relationship with Ross Mirkarami. This Sheriff, I haven't met him personally, I think he knows me, but I haven't met him personally, a very honorable person, very caring. But my question to you commissioners, how are you all individually going to help the Sheriff's Department? Because anybody can ask some questions as if you all work for the public defender's office. How are you going to uplift the Sheriff? I want to know that. I'm listening to your comments. I have a blog. I am going to mention that in my blog. And finally, we had a president of the board, who challenged a cadet, called him the n word. How does that impress young men and women to join the Sheriff's Department? My name is Francisco DeCosta. I am the director of Environmental Advocacy. I also represent the first people of this San Francisco, the Ohlone. Thank you very much."

The acting secretary reminded the board of the time and asked if they wanted to continue the Media Policy. President Wechter asked Deputy City Attorney for advice. There was no motion to continue. Discussion commenced. The Media Policy was not formally called, however, there was open discussion.
