About OEWD

OEWD’s Mission is to advance equity and shared prosperity for all San Franciscans by:

- growing sustainable jobs,
- supporting businesses of all sizes,
- creating great places to live and work, and
- helping everyone achieve economic self-sufficiency.
About RFP #226

The $21 Million initial investment in this RFP touches numerous aspects of San Francisco’s diverse economy, with a focus on advancing equity and shared prosperity for all residents.

The RFP contains 23 distinct program areas across 4 of OEWD’s divisions, which complement funded initiatives already underway throughout the city.

A chart showing all the distinct areas, anticipated number of awards, anticipated total funding and eligible applicant notes begins on page 9 of the RFP.

QUESTIONS?

• Please submit your questions in the chat. Please include the program area you are interested in, or list “Administrative” if your question is general in nature.

• Our team will answer as many questions as possible at this session; all questions will be logged, answered, and posted to the RFP 226 website.

• You may still submit questions until 11:59 P.M. on Monday, May 8, 2023 by email (oewd.procurement@sfgov.org)

San Francisco has long been a beacon to people and companies who think outside the box. As a result, the City has become an international hub for a number of pioneering, forward-thinking industries including life sciences, information technology, clean technology, manufacturing, nonprofits, fashion, nightlife and entertainment, and international commerce.

Dedicated to continuing San Francisco's tradition of business excellence, OEWD's Business Development team provides specialized support to address the unique needs of businesses in a variety of key sectors. For emerging and established companies alike, our team serves as a centralized clearinghouse of information and services to support these industries’ ongoing success.

<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Target Neighborhoods: Citywide, focusing on census tracts facing current inequities</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>

- Grants will provide a short-term runway of flexible support to nonprofits that have recently acquired a property in San Francisco that will expand their services for San Francisco residents.
- Funds can be used for one-time, short-term expenses necessitated by ownership of a new commercial facility and the activation of new or expanded programs on site.
- Grants will be prioritized for projects located in a census tract at or below the 3rd quartile in California’s Healthy Places Index (https://www.healthyplacesindex.org/)
- Evaluation Process will include pre-screening for eligibility and prioritization of census tracts facing current inequities
The Community Economic Development (CED) Division is committed to advancing racial equity, diversity and inclusion in San Francisco’s neighborhood commercial corridors and meeting the needs of local residents and users by strengthening small businesses, improving physical conditions, increasing quality of life, and building community capacity.

In pursuit of these objectives, CED offers programs that are designed to provide focused, customized assistance that meets the specific needs of San Francisco’s neighborhood commercial corridors by leveraging existing programs from across multiple City departments and nonprofit partners. There are many programs offered through CED for which more information can be found at https://sf.gov/departments/office-economic-and-workforce-development/community-economic-development

<tr>
<td>Target Populations: Small businesses, residents, property owners in the Downtown neighborhoods, emphasizing those with continued losses to economic activity</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>

- OEWD seeks proposals from nonprofit or for-profit entities to support economic recovery efforts in the greater downtown neighborhoods through events and activations
- Funds can be used for ongoing, re-occurring, or seasonal activations that drive foot traffic. Programming should occur daily, weekly or monthly (rather than a single event).
- Funding will be prioritized for neighborhoods experiencing the slowest recovery, and ranked within target neighborhoods to ensure funding can be distributed broadly.
The Workforce Development Division of OEWD trains and connects San Franciscans to sustainable jobs with career growth opportunities and promotes prosperity for all residents, including the unemployed, underemployed, and hard-to-employ residents. Our workforce system supports training and development pipelines for qualified candidates toward some of San Francisco’s core industries, including construction, health care, hospitality and tech.

Program Area U: Hospitality Sector Workforce Programs

Maximum Budget Request: $600,000 for one strategy; $1.2M for both strategies

Anticipated # of Awards: 1 Coordinator and up to 8 Occupational Skills Training Providers

Total Funding: OEWD expects to allocate a total of $3.6M for initial awards, over 24 months

Target Populations: Transitional Aged Youth (TAY), young people, and adults, with a focus on communities with high rates of unemployment, who are interested in careers in the Hospitality industry.

- OEWD is seeking proposals for two strategies to support the hospitality industry: The Coordinator works with a broad network of training partners, sector employers, Unions, educational institutions, and other stakeholders to connect jobseekers to sector-related, unsubsidized employment. Occupational Skills Training grantees deliver contextualized training to jobseekers in need of credentials and work experience to succeed in the industry.
- Programs should target at least one of four sub-sectors: Food and Beverage Services; Hotel Guest Services and Accommodations; Commercial Cleaning, and; Facilities Safety/Security
- Applicants may apply to provide one or both strategies through one proposal
- For more information about current Hospitality sector programming, including current funded partners, visit this site: https://sf.gov/apply-train-career-hospitality

The first step to begin working with the City is to complete a short registration process to become a “Registered Bidder”. This will allow you to view and bid on Sourcing Events.

...then Become a Fully Compliant Supplier
After becoming a Registered Bidder, you can then advance your status to become a Fully Compliant Supplier, which allows you to be fully awarded City contracts. The steps to do this are as follows:

1. Complete a San Francisco Business Tax Registration
2. Complete a 12B Equal Benefits Declaration

In addition to the hyperlinked directions above, you can click here to view step-by-step directions on How to Become a Fully Compliant Supplier.

Additional Programs and Forms that may apply to you as you work with the City include the following:
Supplier Instructions – Business Tax

• Registration is required within 15 days after commencing business and renewed annually by May 31st.

San Francisco’s prevailing wage laws create wage and benefit requirements for certain types of work – typically construction related tasks. However, certain limited types of non-construction work are also covered by the City’s prevailing wage requirements.

OLSE’s website thoroughly explains San Francisco’s prevailing wage requirements for contractors.

An explanation of prevailing wage for construction related work can be found at:
https://sf.gov/information/understanding-prevailing-wage

An explanation of prevailing wage for non-construction related work can be found at:
