CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION'S DRAFT FIVE YEAR STRATEGIC PLAN OUTLINE

General Goals and Objective ~~for Fiscal Year 2022-2023~~

- ❖ Establish Rules, policies, and procedures within the merit system to work towards a diverse, equitable, and inclusive City.
- ❖ Increase access to and the utilization of the Civil Service Commission's information and resources in compliance with laws requiring language and disability access. Launch CSC new website and conform content to best practices on sf.gov
- ❖ Create greater transparency and efficiencies in the Civil Service Commission's procedures and communications. Make CSC forms available and fillable on a new website.
- ❖ Ensure the timely resolution of appeals so that merit system issues are addressed efficiently, effectively and fairly.
- ❖ Consider City departments' need for flexibility in personnel management issues while at the same time maintaining the integrity of the City's merit system.
- ❖ Ensure that the Civil Service Commission Rules, policies and procedures are easily understood and known by all stakeholders; consistent; compliant with the law; and reflective of current and best practices.
- ❖ Strengthen the Civil Service Commission's ability to meet its Charter mandates and oversee the operation of the merit system.
- ❖ Increase public hearings accessibility through hybrid (virtual and in-person) meetings.
- ❖ Reinstate Committee on Policies and Rules (COPAR) meetings with specific projects and workgroups to promote/address the ability to quickly hire permanent civil servants

Specific Merit System Goals

Review the Civil Service Rules for revisions as appropriate, in the following order of priority:

1. Rule provisions that conflict with, or are otherwise inconsistent with the law.
2. Rules provisions that support or should support diversity and equity.
3. Rules that are confusing, inconsistent with other Rules or policies, or inconsistently applied by departments.
4. Rule provisions that would support operational needs, especially during state of emergencies.
5. Rules provisions that need to adapt to electronic or remote application.

6. Rules needed to address merit system issues discovered during the course of Inspection Service reviews or the Merit Audit Program conducted to review compliance.
7. Rule provisions that are no longer applicable in theory or practice.
8. Revisions that would consolidate or streamline the Rules.
9. Clean-up (e.g., postmarked date versus emailed date, remove Rules that have expired, or no longer applicable, etc.)

Civil Service Commission Policies

Review existing Civil Service Commission policies in collaboration with the Department of Human Resources and the Municipal Transportation Agency for needed revisions as appropriate and determine whether the creation of policies is necessary and appropriate to address merit system issues where Civil Service Commission stakeholders require more guidance. Policy reviews will be prioritized based on directives from the Civil Service Commission, requests from Commission stakeholders, and the frequency of Inspection Service complaints reviewed on a common issue.

- ~~Amend the Tentatively scheduled for review in Fiscal Year 2022-2023 are the~~ Commission's policies and procedures on personal service contracts, the post-referral selection process, personnel files (after DHR has selected the electronic employee personnel file system), meeting procedures, verification of minimum qualifications, and staff reports.
- Review, update and issue Civil Service Advisers that provide clarification of the Charter and Rules (e.g., verification of minimum qualifications, merit system and racial equity, exempt appointments).
- Exempt appointments – Review, update and issue civil service policies on exempt appointments; require departments to place documentation of verification of minimum qualifications in the employee's personnel file.

ARTICLE X PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION

Sec. 10.100. CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.

There is hereby established a Civil Service Commission which is charged with the duty of providing qualified persons for appointment to the service of the City and County.

The Commission shall consist of five members appointed by the Mayor, pursuant to Section 3.100, for six-year terms. Not less than two members of the Commission shall be women.

The persons so appointed shall, before taking office, make under oath and file in the office of the County Clerk the following declaration: "I am opposed to appointments to the public service as a reward for political activity and will execute the office of Civil Service Commissioner in the spirit of this declaration."

A commissioner may be removed only upon charges preferred in the same manner as in this Charter provided for elective officers.

The regular meetings of the Commission shall be open to the public and held at such a time as will give the general public and employees of the City and County adequate time within which to appear before the Commission after the regular daily working hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Such person or persons shall be given an opportunity to be heard by the Commission before final action is taken in any case involving such person or persons.

Sec. 10.101. GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES.

The Civil Service Commission shall adopt rules, policies and procedures to carry out the civil service merit system provisions of this charter and, except as otherwise provided in this Charter, such rules shall govern applications; examinations; eligibility; duration of eligible lists; certification of eligible; leaves of absence for employees and officers; appointments; promotions; transfer; resignations; lay-offs or reduction in force, both permanent and temporary, due to lack of work or funds, retrenchment or completion of work; the designation and filling of positions, as exempt, temporary, provisional, part-time, seasonal or permanent; status and status rights; probationary positions, as exempt, temporary, provisional, part-time, seasonal or permanent; status and status rights; probationary status and the administration of probationary periods, except duration; pre-employment and fitness for duty medical examinations, except for the conditions under which referrals for fitness for duty examinations will be made, and the imposition of new requirements; classification; conflict of interest; and such other matters as are not in conflict with this Charter; provided further that rules for leave due to illness or disability shall be approved by the Board of Supervisors. Changes to the rules may be proposed by members of the Commission, the Executive Assistant or the Human Resources Director and approved or rejected by the Commission. The Commission may, upon ten days' notice, make changes in the rules, which changes shall thereupon be printed and be in force; provided that no such changes in rules shall affect a case pending before the Commission.

The Commission shall have power to institute and prosecute legal proceedings for violations of any civil service merit system or Department of Human Resources provisions of this Commission.

The Commission shall have power to institute and prosecute legal proceedings for violations of any civil service merit system or Department of Human Resources provisions of this Charter.

The Commission shall establish an inspection service for the purpose of investigating the conduct or an action of appointees in all positions and of securing records of service for promotion and other purposes. All departments shall cooperate with the Commission in making its investigations and any person hindering the Commission or its agents shall be subject to suspension.

The Commission shall by rule establish procedure to review and resolve allegations of discrimination as defined in Article XVII of this Charter or otherwise prohibited nepotism or favoritism appealed to it pursuant to this section. The determination reached under Commission procedures shall be final and shall forthwith be enforced by every employee and officer.

The Commission shall have the power to inquire into the operation of the civil service merit system to ensure compliance with merit principles and rules established by the Commission. After such inquiry, the Commission may direct the Human Resources Director to take such action as the Commission believes necessary to carry out the civil service provisions of this Charter. In any hearing conducted by the Commission or by any hearing officer it appoints pursuant to this section, the Commission or the hearing officer shall have the power to subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of records.

The Commission may require periodic reports from the Human Resources Director in a manner and form which it shall prescribe.

The Commission may hear appeals from an action of the Human Resources Director in accordance with its rules, including but not limited to:

1. Allegations of discrimination as defined in Article XVII of this Charter. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Charter except the fiscal provisions hereof, the decision of the Commission regarding allegations of discrimination shall forthwith be enforced by every officer and employee;
2. Allegations of fraud; and
3. Allegations of conflict of interest.

No action by the Human Resources Director which is the subject of any appeal shall be stayed during the appeal process except by a majority vote of the Civil Service Commission.

The Commission shall have the power and it shall be its duty to appoint an executive assistant to be the administrative head of the affairs under its control who shall serve at its pleasure; provided, however, that any person who has Civil Service status in the position of executive assistant to the Commission on the effective date of this section as amended shall continue to have Civil Service status in the position of executive assistant under the Civil Service provisions of this Charter. The executive assistant shall periodically report to the Commission on operation of the civil service merit system and may make recommendations to the Civil Service Commission regarding its rules, policies and procedures.
