6. Racial Equity Updates

(31:41)

Senior Racial Equity and Policy Analyst, Panopio provided some updates regarding strategies for implementing racial equity initiatives within the agency's strategic plan. In addition, she shared some insight on the previous racial equity meeting that mainly focused on community engagement and relationship-building strategies and improvements with Commission's President, Vice President, and Director Remington.

President Collins mentioned opportunities regarding leveraging our cultural centers as pillars or supportive resources for community engagement efforts. Commissioner Beltran presented a prospect to connect and construct relationships with other art and cultural grassroots organizations impacted by the pandemic and unsustainable before or no longer operating. President Collins further discussed efforts to enhance and restore the "frameworks" to increase partnerships and collaborations to infuse community and civic engagement duties into employees' roles.

Director Remington suggested to pause further discussion concerning the strategic plan.

Public commenters inquired about the processes and advocated for actions concentrating on artists and creators.

There was no public comment.

7. New Business and Announcements (49:22)

Commissioner Baltran announced several upcoming student shows and encouraged others to attend and support the university's student art shows,
