	YES ON A: SAN FRANCISCO NEEDS AFFORDABLE HOUSING Housing affordability is one of the most pressing challenges facing San Francisco today. Wages have not kept up with the cost of housing and we are at risk of losing the diverse community of firefighters, teachers, nurses, veterans, families, and seniors who make San Francisco a special place to live. That's why we've come together to champion Proposition A—a critical solution to our housing affordability crisis. Proposition A will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide essential affordable housing for working parents and families so they can continue to live and work in San Francisco. • Secure housing for seniors on fixed incomes who are having to choose between paying for housing and purchasing groceries and necessities. • Provide affordable housing for first responders so they can both live and work in the city and be available if an earthquake or other disaster strikes. • Help San Francisco meet our State RHNA housing goals which require us to approve 46,000 affordable housing units in the next eight years or lose state funding. • Implement stringent fiscal controls and robust oversight including annual independent audits and review of all spending to ensure that funds are used as promised. • Earn matching funds from state and federal affordable housing programs with a goal of doubling our investment for housing. • Not increase property tax rates, so that neither homeowners or renters will see an increase in housing costs as a result of the bond. On March 5th, let's take a decisive step.
