7. 2023 Art on Market Street Poster Series (1:18:55)

Mr. Corpora presented the second installment of the 2023 Art on Market Street poster series. Rina Ayuyang's series Finding Filipino commemorates the history and contributions made by Filipinos in San Francisco. The Filipino community makes up the largest Asian group in California, yet it is still striving for representation, especially in the media and politics. Ayuyang's posters include accounts of her family's immigration story which began in San Francisco. Each poster highlights neighborhoods, landmarks, or annual events around the city as they relate to Filipino history, culture, and community. The narrative is told from first-person perspective making it an intimate experience when interacting with the works.

Finding Filipino will be installed in April 2023 and will be up through June 2023.

There was no public comment.

Motion: to approve the 9 final designs by Rina Ayuyang for the 2023 Art on Market Street Kiosk Poster Series.

Moved: Beltran/Schnair

Ayes: Ferras, Beltran, McCoy, Musleh, Schnair

8. Ambulance Deployment Facility (1:28:27)

Project Manager Marcus Davies presented recently completed artwork titled Serving the City, 2023, by Michael Bartalos for Fire Station 49 (the City's Ambulance Deployment Facility), located at 2241 Jerrold Avenue in the Produce Market district several blocks east of the Bayshore Freeway. The artwork consists of 21 ten-foot-high cut and painted steel panels mounted to the facility's entrance and exit gates.

In the artist's words, the imagery "speaks to the history and visual vernacular of our Emergency Medical Services, fire suppression, and the communities they serve, and references emblems, insignia, and badges associated with emergency medical response.

"The artwork also illustrates general Fire Department operations, as well as San Francisco's neighborhoods and landmarks.

"Serving the City aims to communicate the Fire Department's mission 'to protect the lives and property of the people of San Francisco,' and to this end it suggests strength, courage, and continuous commitment to this work."

Motion: to approve as installed the completed artwork titled Serving the City, 2023, by Michael Bartalos for Fire Station 49 (Ambulance Deployment Facility) at 2241 Jerrold Avenue. The artwork, installed at the station's Jerrold Avenue entrance and McKinnon Avenue exit, consists of twenty-one cut and painted steel panels. The overall artwork dimensions are 10 ft. high by approximately 114-½ ft. wide.
