Teach-In: Shutdown Lockheed Martin. No Weapons for Genocide

Lockheed Martin, 275 Battery St., San Francisco, December 8, 2022

U.S.-made weapons have facilitated the mass killings of extended families. "In the face of the unprecedented civilian death toll and scale of destruction in Gaza, the U.S. and other governments must stop funding weapons to Israel, who is ignoring the Biden administration's impotent calls to protect civilians Biden has continued to send weaponry to the Israeli military, deepening its and OUR complicity. The Wall Street Journal reported that the Biden administration has transferred more than 100 2,000-pound bunker-buster bombs to Israel as part of the flow of weapons that started soon after the October 7 Hamas-led attack.

Lockheed Martin Corp, is the world's largest military company. Lockheed's weapon systems are routinely used in war crimes against Palestinian civilians.

Source: American Friends Service Committee: <https://investigate.afsc.org/company/lockheed-martin> Dec. 2022

Lockheed Martin Corporation, headquartered in Bethesda, Maryland, designs, manufactures, and sells fighter jets, attack helicopters, armored vehicles, missiles, surveillance radars, and other weapon and surveillance systems. It has been the world's largest military contractor since 2009, with $67 billion in annual revenue as of 2022, 96% of which derives from its defense sector.

The company has long supplied the U.S. and international militaries with weapon systems and equipment. Between 2008 and 2021, it signed contracts worth $429 billion with the U.S. Department of Defense (DOD).

War Crimes Against Palestinian Civilians

Lockheed Martin supplies the Israeli government with a wide variety of weapons, including fighter jets, attack helicopters, and missiles. These weapons are often gifted to Israel through the U.S. government's Foreign Military Financing program.

For years, these weapons have repeatedly been used against Palestinian civilians, resulting in numerous casualties as well as mass destruction of homes and civilian infrastructure, including hospitals, schools, and water and electric systems. These attacks include war crimes that Israel has committed during several major military offensives against the Gaza Strip, which has been illegally blockaded since 2007:

- 2022 ("Operation Breaking Dawn"): Within three days of an unprovoked offensive, Israel killed at least 33 Palestinians, including 17 civilians. Evidence of war crimes was recorded by Amnesty International.
- 2021 ("Operation Guardian of the Walls"): During this assault, Israel killed at least 261 Palestinians, including 67 children and 41 women. At least half of the fatalities were civilians, and more than 2,200 additional Palestinians were injured. Evidence of war crimes and possible crimes against humanity was published by Palestinian human rights organizations Al-Haq, Al Mezan, and the Palestinian Center for Human Rights; Amnesty International; and Human Rights Watch. The International Criminal Court announced that it will examine these cases.

published by Palestinian human rights organizations Al-Haq and Al Mezan; Israeli organization B'Tselem; Amnesty International; and Human Rights Watch.

- 2012 ("Operation Pillar of Defense"): Israel killed 174 Palestinians, 101 of whom were civilians, including 33 children and 13 women. Evidence of Israeli war crimes was published by the UN, Amnesty International, and Human Rights Watch.
- 2008–2009 ("Operation Cast Lead"): During this 22-day assault, Israel killed at least 1,385 Palestinians, including at least 308 children, and wounded at least 5,000 more. The majority of casualties were civilians. Evidence of war crimes was published by the U.N.'s Fact-Finding Mission, Amnesty International, and Human Rights Watch.

Warplanes: F-16, F-35

Lockheed Martin provides the Israeli Air Force with F-16 and F-35 aircraft, as well as related components, including f-35 helmet-mounted display systems, training, and maintenance services.

Since the 1970s, the F-16 has been the Israeli Air Force's "most important fighter jet" and has been used by the Israeli military in all of its major assaults on Gaza. During the 2021 offensive, F-16s—described as the "mainstay of the bombardment"—were documented, for example, bombing Gaza City's Rimal neighborhood, as well as residential buildings and the offices of news organizations, including Al Jazeera and the Associated Press. During the 2008–2009 assault, Israeli F-16s were used to target civilians, civilian homes, and refugee camps. The attacks killed numerous Palestinians, including 22 members of a single family, 12 of whom were children under the age of 10.

The Lockheed Martin–manufactured F-35 is the most advanced warplane used by the Israeli Air Force. In 2018, Israel became the first country in the world to launch an airstrike using F-35I fighter jets, a heavily modified version of the F-35. Since then, the Israeli Air Force has used the aircraft during airstrikes in and around Gaza. For example, during its 2021 assault, the Israeli Air Force deployed 80 fighter jets, including advanced F-35 jets, to carry out "waves of airstrikes across the Gaza Strip."

Lockheed Martin supplied Israel with at least 102 F-16s between 2004 and 2009 and at least 50 F-35s between 2016 and 2021. In addition, the company has provided the Israeli government with related maintenance and services. For example, in 2022, Lockheed Martin was awarded an additional $8.1 million as part of an existing contract for engineering, data, and training services related to Israel's F-35 program.

Hellfire Missiles and Multiple Launch Rocket Systems

The Israeli Air Force extensively uses Lockheed Martin's Longbow Hellfire (AGM-114L) missiles in its frequent military attacks on the Gaza Strip. The company provided Israel with at least 1,445 Hellfire missiles between 1990 and 2006 alone. Fired from Boeing's AH-64 Apache helicopters, Hellfire missiles are considered high-precision weapons, which means that their civilian casualties have been targeted deliberately.

During its 2014 attack on Gaza, for example, Israel used Hellfire missiles to kill at least 51 people, including 24 children, and injured at least 66 others, including 36 children, in incidents that the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights identified as "a direct attack against civilian objects or civilians, a war crime under international criminal law." The assault drew widespread condemnation and, later in 2014, the U.S. government halted the transfer of Hellfire missiles and other weapons to Israel. Transfers were subsequently resumed a month later.

- 2014 ("Operation Protective Edge"): During this 50-day assault, Israel killed at least 2,131 Palestinians, at least 1,473 of whom were civilians, including 501 children and 257 women. At least 11,100 Palestinians were wounded, including 3,374 children. Evidence of war crimes was published by Palestinian human rights organizations Al-Haq and Al Mezan; Israeli organization B'Tselem; Amnesty International; and Human Rights Watch.
- 2012 ("Operation Pillar of Defense"): Israel killed 174 Palestinians, 101 of whom were civilians, including 33 children and 13 women. Evidence of Israeli war crimes was published by the UN, Amnesty International, and Human Rights Watch.

The assault drew widespread condemnation and, later in 2014, the U.S. government halted the transfer of Hellfire missiles and other weapons to Israel. Transfers were subsequently resumed a month later.

During its 2008–2009 attack on Gaza, Israel used Hellfire missiles to kill three Palestinian paramedics and a 12-year-old boy in Gaza City. At the time, the paramedics were wearing recognizable fluorescent vests and were trying to assist two people who had been wounded during a previous attack.

In addition to Hellfire missiles, Lockheed Martin also manufactures electro-optical sensors and radar technologies designed specifically for the Boeing Apache helicopter. The company markets these systems as a means of increasing the "target tracking performance," "standoff ranges," and lethality of Apache attack helicopters.

Lockheed Martin also provides Israel with its M-270 Multiple Launch Rocket System (MLRS), a mobile system that fires a torrent of surface-to-surface rockets. The Israeli military used the MLRS to fire cluster munitions during the 2006 Lebanon War in attacks that Human Rights Watch deemed to be of "an indiscriminate and disproportionate character, in violation of international humanitarian law." Israel fired as many as 4.6 million submunitions across Lebanon during the war, killing at least 192 civilians and severely damaging agricultural land.

A few of Lockheed Martin's War Crimes

Israel Used US-Made Munitions to Massacre Two Gazan Families, Including 19 Kids. An Amnesty International investigation published Tuesday found that the Israeli military used U.S.-made munitions in a pair of illegal airstrikes on homes in the occupied Gaza Strip in October, killing more than 43 people from two families—including 19 children. This "should be an urgent wake-up call to the Biden administration."

Lockheed Martin supplied the 300 lb. bomb that killed 40 children on a Yemen school bus in 2018.

- Eleven adults also died and 79 people were wounded
- Bomb sold to Saudi Arabia was made by Lockheed Martin

On Oct. 8, 2016, in Yemen's capital, hundreds were gathered at the Great Hall of Sana'a City for the funeral of a tribal leader, when a Raytheon and Lockheed-made GBU-12 Paveway II 500-pound laser-guided bomb leveled the area, killing 140, according to Human Rights Watch.

Yemeni Lawsuit. Lockheed Martin, Raytheon and General Dynamics, three of the five largest U.S. defense contractors, supported war crimes by selling weapons to Saudi Arabia and UAE-led coalition forces during the civil war in Yemen, seven Yemeni civilians alleged in a lawsuit. The lawsuit, filed in federal court in Washington on March 2, also names Saudi Arabian and UAE officials for their alleged direct involvement, while including Pentagon officials, U.S. agency heads and industry CEOs for indirect participation.

"There's no bringing back my family or the thousands of other lives lost to these horrors," Ayman Mhamad Saleh Al-Sanabani, a plaintiff in the case who witnessed the wedding bombing, said in a statement. "But ensuring there are consequences for those committing and abetting war crimes is a necessary precedent."

Name as it will appear with statement: Marjorie Mikels

My occupation is: Attorney/Peace Advocate

My qualifications are:

Keep Text Within the Vertical Lines. Word count starts here:

Juris Doctor Degree from UCLA School of Law, excelling in Constitutional Law, and decades of fierce legal battles, I'm a grandmother dedicated to Peace and saving humanity and sustaining Life on Planet Earth for future generations.

We must STOP USA Weapons of Death and Endless Wars!

Marjorie Mikels will:

1. Prioritize universal human security and environmental preservation over corporate capital growth supported by military might, benefiting the few at the expense of the vast majority of humankind.
2. Support treaties for Non-proliferation and Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons.
3. Slash the military budget, devoting money saved for the needs of people.

We got broken promises of Medicare for all, $15 minimum wage, reproductive rights, student debt relief, and ending scourge of homelessness. Instead, over half the budget goes to the war machine.

Innocent civilians, women and children, are slaughtered in the name of "Self-Defense", while Congress votes billions more weapons for GENOCIDE. Those who oppose massacres done in our name, with our tax dollars, are stigmatized. No diplomatic resolution is sought in Ukraine. Ever increasing pivot to War with China. War is not green! US military is Earth's biggest polluter and user of fossil fuels. The world moves closer to nuclear annihilation.

To keep the "peace" (when the gulf between the rich and the rest of us is greater than ever in history) civil society is increasingly surveilled, and subjected to massive police escalation, as the war is brought home.

VOTE MARJORIE MIKELS FOR PEACE, JUSTICE AND SECURITY FOR ALL!
