- (3) If a candidate's name is to appear on the ballot in more than one jurisdiction in an election, all of those jurisdictions required to provide translated ballot materials pursuant to Section 203 of the federal Voting Rights Act of 1965 (52 U.S.C. Sec. 10503) shall use the same phonetic transliteration or character-based translation of the name.
- (4) (A) In a jurisdiction in which separate ballots containing translations of the candidates' names are printed in different languages, both the alphabet-based names and the translations of the candidates' names, for candidates that have translated names, shall appear on the translated ballot.
- (B) If a jurisdiction is unable to comply with subparagraph (A) due to limitations of its existing voting system, any new voting system purchased by the jurisdiction after July 1, 2020, shall be able to accommodate the requirements of subparagraph (A).
- (b) If a candidate has a character-based name by birth, that can be verified by birth certificate or other valid identification, the candidate may use that name on the ballot instead of a phonetic transliteration. A candidate who does not have a character-based name by birth, but who identifies by a particular character-based name and can demonstrate to the local elections official that the candidate has been known and identified within the public sphere by that name over the past two years, may use that name instead of a phonetic transliteration.

It is my honor to represent San Francisco.

I believe that dreams can be chased, fought for, and achieved. There is nothing that is impossible. It doesn't matter if you arrive in the city with a penny; you can earn the life you want. I believe in this pursuit of happiness, the goodness within all people, and my conviction of faith.

I first ran for office a decade ago, then left the city shortly afterwards. I began my career by founding a startup in local news, then led two others in agriculture analytics and commercial mining. When the pandemic struck, I was in Montana on an army grant. I dropped out of the election there and came home that summer, because I don't represent the average Montanan.

As a pro-nature and conservative candidate, my first priority is to provide parents the autonomy to best educate their children by allowing vouchers at private schools. Second, police officers require more flexibility in apprehending drug suppliers which will reduce fentanyl accessibility. Third, accredited education can be substituted for certain work requirements. The purpose of benefits is to help people onto their feet so they won't return to welfare.

Government should provide everyone with an equality of opportunities, but also the freedom of outcomes. Everyone should excel, if they are willing to earn it.

I humbly ask for your vote to represent San Francisco.

Thank you.
