

did you notice?

The San Francisco Department of Public Health (DPH) has replaced sugary drinks with healthy beverages and provided healthier options in vending machines throughout our facilities.

DPH is committed to creating a culture of health for our patients, staff, visitors and community-at-large.

Consuming healthy food and drinks is crucial to preventing chronic diseases.

www.sfdph.org/cultureofhealth

San Francisco
Department of Public Health