

Requesting a Second Opinion

Dear Medi-Cal member:

You have been issued a Notice of Adverse Benefit Determination based on not meeting the necessary medical necessity criteria for the services requested.

If you don't agree with the decision, you may ask Behavioral Health Services to arrange for a second opinion about your mental health or substance use disorder condition. To request this, you may speak with a representative of your behavioral health services plan by calling 1-888-246-3333 or by visiting or writing to: Officer of the Day, Behavioral Health Access Center, 1380 Howard Street, 1st Floor, San Francisco, CA 94103.
