The names of candidates appear on the official ballot in traditional Chinese characters as well as in English. The Department of Elections can provide this transliteration or translation for candidates for local office, or the candidate may provide documentation of established use of a name in Chinese.

If a candidate has a character-based name by birth, that can be verified by birth certificate or other valid identification, the candidate may use that name on the ballot instead of a phonetic transliteration. A candidate who does not have a character-based name by birth, but who identifies by a particular character-based name and can demonstrate that they have been known and identified within the public sphere by that name over the past two years, may use that name instead of a phonetic transliteration.

Check one option (provide supporting documentation):

- I request that the Department of Elections, working with a qualified Chinese-language translator, provide a Chinese transliteration or translation of my name for all materials where it is legally required.
- I am providing documentation of established use of a particular Chinese transliteration or translation of my name for the Department to review. I understand that the Department's decision whether to accept a proposed transliteration or translation is final.
- I have a character-based name by birth and am providing supporting documentation of this name.

(A) Words designating the city, county, district, state, or federal office held by the candidate at the time of filing the nomination documents.

(B) The word "incumbent" if the candidate is a candidate for the same office that the candidate holds at the time of filing the nomination papers.

(A) Words designating the actual job title, as defined by statute, charter, or other governing instrument.

(B) One of the following ballot designations: "Attorney," "Attorney at Law," "Lawyer," or "Counselor at Law." The designations "Attorney" and "Lawyer" may be used in combination with one other current principal profession, vocation, or occupation of the candidate, or the principal profession, vocation, or occupation of the candidate during the calendar year immediately preceding the filing of nomination documents.

(3) A designation made pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) shall also contain relevant qualifiers, as follows:

As a 30-year-old LGBTQIA renter and fourth-generation San Francisco resident, I'm running for District 5 Supervisor to represent the voices of those who believe in a productive and prosperous future for all San Franciscans.

Our local government has a clear, critical, and necessary role to play in shaping the future of San Francisco. We need to get serious about our commitment to affordable housing, end the mental health and addiction crises on our streets, support law enforcement, and invest in our critical urban infrastructure like MUNI and the education system. I will work with my fellow Supervisors and the Mayor to make actual progress on quality of life issues for San Franciscans.

As the youngest Supervisor, I'll be the voice of common-sense San Francisco; I'll focus on pragmatic, reasonable, compassionate, and achievable solutions to our current challenges, and be an optimistic, forward-looking steward of our future. Most importantly, I will put progress in front of ideology.

I've worked in non-profits and the corporate world, and am excited to devote the next chapter of my life to public service. I know our city's brightest days are ahead, and I look forward to serving as your next District 5 Supervisor.
