My occupation is: Educator
My qualifications are:

Keep Text Within the Vertical Lines. Word count starts here:

This election is a choice between a different direction for our city – or more of the same.
As a lifelong San Franciscan, I've seen the challenges we face get worse because of politicians who make decisions that benefit their campaign contributors – like wealthy real estate interests – over the needs of the people.
That has to stop, and that's why I'm running to represent you in the Assembly and make progress on the issues that matter most to you:
• Education: I've devoted my career to being an educator and seen how a good education can change young people's lives. That's why it's critical that California's community colleges be completely tuition free, so everyone has the opportunity to pursue any career path at no cost.
• Housing: Too many residents of San Francisco are being pushed out of the neighborhoods they love. I support rent control and having more community input on big housing decisions. I'll protect our communities and promote smart growth to build affordable housing with the support of the community, rather than the runaway growth of recent years that threatens to destroy the rich diversity of San Francisco.
• Public Safety: While the East Side of San Francisco gets the vast majority of attention, I'll fight for more resources to address basic safety issues affecting residents and small businesses on the West Side.

Please join leaders like Assemblymember Phil Ting, President of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors Aaron Peskin, Former President of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors Norman Yee, and Former San Francisco Supervisor Sandra Lee Fewer and vote for David Lee for Assembly.
