B	Tell City Hall that residents deserve accountability and results from City government before we authorize hundreds of millions of dollars in more government spending: Vote No on Prop B. In just the last ten years alone, voters have approved more than $5 Billion dollars in bond spending. But the City is on the wrong track, and we aren't seeing results from City Hall. Despite astronomical spending, homelessness has become an unmanageable crisis, City College is in disarray, the School District is in decline, transportation projects are delivered years late and hundreds of millions of dollars over budget, and our infrastructure is failing—all while the City budget has expanded to almost $16 Billion annually. Despite having a budget that is larger than most states, San Francisco is now facing an alarming budget deficit of nearly $800 Million dollars. Now is certainly not the right time to approve $390 Million dollars in more government spending at the expense of taxpayers. And while proponents will tell you that Prop B won't raise taxes, what they won't tell you is that your tax rate will actually go down if Prop B fails. It's time for voters to tell the City that we deserve accountability, results, and fiscal responsibility from City government before we approve hundreds of millions of dollars in more spending. Throwing more money at our problems hasn't worked in the past and it won't work now. Send a message to City Hall. Residents need city government to function properly and to spend within its means.
