	This charter amendment is a sneaky attempt by the current members and leadership of the Board of Supervisors to maintain maximum control by circumventing the will of the voters in the current election in multiple ways. Let's look at some of the details of what this measure proposes to see how it tricks voters into not allowing their other decisions in this election to be represented. The current President of the Board of Supervisors would have appointing power - even though more than half of the Supervisors are on the ballot in November, and the current President of the Board of Supervisors is guaranteed to be replaced next year. The will of the voters is thwarted - the new Supervisors voted into office in this election would get no say! The appointed members of this new commission could propose legislation, which could only be blocked by a vote of the Board of Supervisors. The will of the voters is thwarted - whoever is chosen as mayor in this election has absolutely no power to block or change the legislation of this new commission! Prop E was introduced only after Prop D was submitted to the ballot by voters. If Prop E passes with more votes, Prop D is made completely void: but even if Prop D passes with more votes than Prop E, Prop E still takes effect to maximum extent permitted by law. The will of the voters is thwarted - even if Prop D gets more votes, Prop E might still override it! This measure is a cynical attempt to hijack the growing consensus that San Francisco needs authentic reform of its commissions. Don't let City Hall trick you. Vote no on this sham measure! Patrick Wolff Founder, Families for San Francisco
