	Yes on C for a San Francisco government you can trust I served as the City Controller for seventeen years. During that time we created the City Services Auditor division and started the City's whistleblower hotline. But those kinds of controls haven't been good enough to stop the recent fraud that has been found by the FBI and US Attorney. Prop C would give the Controller an Inspector General with the authority to find and root out corruption in City government and with people who do business with the City. By putting it in the independent Controller's Office it protects it from political interference. It also provides money for this work from a fund set aside for the Controller which means there does not need to be any additional funds budgeted for this effort. I urge your support. Vote Yes on Prop C Ed Harrington, Former City Controller
