Format B, I, BI	As residents of nearby neighborhoods, we ask you to vote YES on Proposition K	# of words per line
	When the City recently asked Sunset residents what we need in our neighborhood, the response was overwhelming: more parks and community spaces. Unlike most other neighborhoods, most Sunset residents live farther than a 10 minute walk from a park.
	Ocean Beach Park has responded to that need, delivering much needed open space and joy, and opening up our neighborhood's greatest asset - the coastline - for all to enjoy. Our families have flocked to the park for an oceanside stroll, a bike or scooter ride with the kids, Tai Chi and Sunday jazz, or just to sit and watch the waves.
	Without Proposition K, the pilot will soon end, and our beloved coastal park will be gone.
	A new coastal park will be an incredible addition to our neighborhood, but we know big changes come with questions, and some of our neighbors are concerned about traffic. Fortunately, Proposition K comes with a traffic plan that fully meets the needs of neighbors and commuters alike. After years of pilots and studies, the data is in: traffic implications are minor. We know this because the road already closes up to 65 days a year due to sand accumulation, and rush hour trips to the South Bay only take at most three minutes longer, less at other times. And thoughtful traffic calming has successfully reduced speeding below pre-pandemic levels, improving pedestrian safety in our neighborhoods.
	Let's keep Ocean Beach Park and make it a permanent feature in our children's lives. Vote YES on Prop K.

	As San Franciscans, we are excited about the tremendous benefits of a new oceanfront park promenade. But as transportation professionals, we could only support Proposition K if we did our research. We checked the data: the benefits of converting the Great Highway into a new oceanfront park are great, and the transportation implications are minor. Based on the traffic data, we found: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sunset Boulevard has plenty of capacity: Observed data indicates that the closure adds only 3 minutes of travel time for cars during weekday rush hour — less at other times — [1], and these delays can be mitigated with already-underway traffic signal improvements at Great Highway & Lincoln Blvd and Sloat Blvd & Skyline [2]. • Outer Sunset residential streets will likely remain safe and calm: Since the introduction of the pilot promenade, the Lower Great Highway has already seen significant improvements: More than 50% reduction in weekday traffic volume and 21% decrease in speeding compared to pre-pandemic [1]. • The need for the Great Highway as a road is small; the need for a park is great: With or without a coastal park, the southern section of Great Highway will close next year due to coastal erosion, meaning people driving between the Outer Richmond and San Mateo County will take a new inland route, and demand for the Upper Great Highway as a road will decrease significantly [2]. At the same time, Sunset residents have consistently identified more parks and open spaces as some of their greatest needs. The benefits of a new oceanfront park are great. 	San Francisco's federal, state, and local leaders support Proposition K — Ocean Beach Park for All — because: San Franciscans love Ocean Beach Park. Over 3 million people have visited the park during the pilot, instantly making it our city's third most popular park. People using wheelchairs, roller skaters, kids on bicycles - all can now enjoy the coast. Proposition K preserves and builds on this San Francisco success story. It's time to plan for the future. The Great Highway south of Sloat will no longer be used for vehicle traffic due to climate change, and the city needs to plan ahead to keep traffic moving. Proposition K is smart planning. It just makes sense. We can either continue to spend taxpayer funds maintaining a road to nowhere, or we can use that money to create an iconic coastal park and streamline north-south commutes at the same time. Proposition K is a win-win. Ocean Beach Park will be San Francisco's next iconic open space. This is our chance to create the next Embarcadero or Crissy Field, with our only Pacific Ocean coast as the star. Proposition K is our gift to future generations. After four years, 11 public hearings, and eight reports, the studies are in, and it's time to vote YES on Proposition K. Speaker Emerita Nancy Pelosi Senator Scott Wiener Joaquín Torres, Assessor-Recorder Jenny Lam, Commissioner, San Francisco Board of Education Janice Li, BART Director Eric Mar, Former District 1 Supervisor

	San Francisco's LGBTQ Leaders support Proposition K because we need Ocean Beach Park: safe and accessible open space for all to enjoy our majestic Pacific Ocean coast. We have a choice before us about how to use our only coastline. With the pilot program expiring next year, a YES vote on Proposition K preserves this beloved community space, host to over 10,000 weekly visits full of joy. Proposition K creates a legacy for future generations of San Franciscans, allows immediate park improvements like seating in the short-term, and is the necessary first step to reimagining what our coast should look like in the future. Ocean Beach Park has become a critical community space for San Franciscans. 	Working people rely on San Francisco's extraordinary parks for a respite, access to nature, and the calming relief of a walk with family. Proposition K creates an oceanfront park where all are welcome and comfortable, an opportunity to stroll, listen to the sounds of the waves, and relax. A weekend-only park doesn't provide access to those who must work weekends, nor does it allow for even the most basic park features like seating or picnic tables. Proposition K builds on the success of more than four years of study and community process to create an Ocean Beach Park that makes the coast accessible to more people and activities. It's coupled with smart planning that quickly gets commuters where they need to go while creating an iconic new destination on our coast. The popularity of the pilot — already San Francisco's third most-visited park — shows us the incredible demand for a new coastal park.
