

Ballot Argument Control Sheet A

Control Sheet A must be submitted for every ballot argument, with required signatures and author information. If your argument has more than one author, you must also submit Control Sheet B with required signatures and information for all additional authors.

For an argument submitted on behalf of an organization, the "Individual" section must also be completed by a principal officer of the organization who must be a registered San Francisco voter.

If an argument states that an individual or organization other than the author support the ballot measure, or agrees with or endorses the argument, a completed and signed Form is required.

	We all agree that our school district faces significant financial challenges that must be addressed. But in the meantime, we must ensure we are meeting our students' basic needs—safe schools and access to nutrition. Our schools' current financial challenges highlight the necessity of directing our resources wisely. Prop A is a smart investment in the schools we need, with no new taxes. Many of our school buildings are outdated, with some over 60 years old and others housed in temporary portables that don't meet modern safety standards. These aging structures create uncomfortable learning environments, with failing heating systems and inadequate ventilation. Prop A replaces these deteriorating facilities, ensuring all students can access safe, up-to-date classrooms to focus on their education. It overhauls outdated kitchens and cafeterias, ensuring that the thousands of San Francisco kids who rely on school meals for their nutrition receive fresh, healthy food. Prop A is a forward-looking solution that addresses the urgent facility problems facing our schools today without raising taxes. By voting Yes on Prop A, we are prioritizing the safety and success of our children. This measure provides funds to directly benefit our schools, making it a financially responsible choice that avoids new taxes. That's why it's supported by teachers, students, parents, community leaders and elected officials throughout San Francisco.
