Ballot Argument Control Sheet A

Control Sheet A must be submitted for every ballot argument, with required signatures and author information. If your argument has more than one author, you must also submit Control Sheet B with required signatures and information for all additional authors.

For an argument submitted on behalf of an organization, the "Individual" section must also be completed by a principal officer of the organization who must be a registered San Francisco voter.

If an argument states that an individual or organization other than the author supports or opposes the ballot measure, or agrees with or endorses the argument, a completed and signed Control Sheet C Form is required.

Facilitate typesetting, and reduce the possibility of transcription error by sending an electronic copy of your ballot argument text within 24 hours after submission to the Department at publications@sfgov.org.

	It is no surprise that the politicians who've benefited from the broken status quo would outright lie about the anti-corruption and good government measure Prop D, which will reform the system they've benefited from for years.
	Here are the facts about Prop D:
	Drafted in collaboration with think-tank Rose Institute and drew input from labor, neighborhood groups, and residents.
	The only government reform measure put on the ballot by voters and not City Hall insiders.
	Does not eliminate any commission. Creates an independent task force to conduct a comprehensive and public review of San Francisco's 130 commissions.
	Cements civilian oversight over police. The Police Commission will oversee police officer disciplinary cases and oversee Department of Police Accountability.
	Enhances checks and balances by ensuring that elected officials, and not un-elected commissioners, are responsible for managing City departments.
	Allows for direct removal of un-elected commissioners for corrupt behavior.
	Contrast this with Prop E, which was written in City Hall backrooms by career politicians and does not have any provisions for holding un-elected commissioners accountable.
	Most troubling, Prop E gives an un-elected "commission on commissions, composed mostly of City bureaucrats, the power to introduce laws that change our government. Contrary to their claims, Prop E takes power away from voters to reform their government.
	Don't be fooled! We need real reform led by residents and not by career politicians.
	Yes on D for Decisive Change and No on E for Empty Promises.
