San Francisco needs the right kind of reform. Vote No on D and Yes on E.

Prop D was written by one organization, new to the city, funded by a billionaire outsider with an extremely conservative agenda. It takes a meat ax to our city government to further its own political agenda.

Prop D DISMANTLES vital and effective commissions like our Arts, Library, Health, Youth, Environment and Women's Commissions.

Prop D DESTROYS civilian oversight of police department policies such as use of deadly force.

Prop D DIMINISHES our American system of checks and balances, giving future Mayors unchecked power – and taking it away from voters.

There's a better way. Vote Yes on E to streamline city government while keeping voters in control. Yes on E mandates a public review, with cost and benefit analysis, of every San Francisco commission, to determine how to consolidate and streamline city government while preserving citizen engagement.

Don't put the government back behind closed doors and create a new breeding ground for abuse and corruption.

Join us and vote No on D and Yes on E.

San Francisco needs the right kind of reform. Vote No on D, and Yes on E.

Prop D was written by one organization, new to the city, funded by a billionaire outsider with an extremely conservative agenda. It takes a meat ax to our city government to further its own political agenda.

Prop D DISMANTLES vital and effective commissions like our Arts, Library, Health, Youth, Environment and Women's Commissions.

Prop D DESTROYS civilian oversight of police department policies such as use of deadly force.

Prop D DIMINISHES our American system of checks and balances, giving future Mayors unchecked power – and taking it away from voters.

There's a better way. Vote Yes on E to streamline city government while keeping voters in control. Yes on E mandates a public review, with cost and benefit analysis, of every San Francisco commission, to determine how to consolidate and streamline city government while preserving citizen engagement.

Don't put the government back behind closed doors and create a new breeding ground for abuse and corruption.

Join us and vote No on D and Yes on E.

San Francisco needs the right kind of reform. Vote No on D and Yes on E.

Prop D was written by one organization, new to the city, funded by a billionaire outsider with an extremely conservative agenda. It takes a meat ax to our city government to further its own political agenda:

Prop D DISMANTLES vital and effective commissions like our Arts, Library, Health, Youth, Environment and Women's Commissions.

Prop D DESTROYS civilian oversight of police department policies such as use of deadly force.

Prop D DIMINISHES our American system of checks and balances, giving future Mayors unchecked power – and taking it away from voters.

There's a better way. Vote Yes on E to streamline city government while keeping voters in control. Yes on E mandates a public review, with cost and benefit analysis, of every San Francisco commission, to determine how to consolidate and streamline city government while preserving citizen engagement.

Don't put the government back behind closed doors and create a new breeding ground for abuse and corruption.

Join us and vote No on D and Yes on E.
