SAY NO TO PROP F: Wasteful, ineffective, and unfair.

Proposition F is a city-hall insider re-do of a policy that's already been tried and was a massive failure. Voting Yes on F would be a vote for an extremely expensive program that San Franciscans cannot afford, that won't keep us safer.

- WASTEFUL: Proposition F would force taxpayers to pay some individual officers up to HALF A MILLION DOLLARS by allowing them to double dip into salaries and banked pension payments. It won't add a single officer to the ranks of SFPD despite the widely known staffing shortage. Paying retiring officers twice—including those who retire while under investigation for misconduct—will not compensate for the hundreds more officers approaching retirement every year.
- INEFFECTIVE: San Francisco tried this program in 2008 and rightfully abandoned it in 2011 because there was no evidence that it helped the city to retain or recruit officers. Proposition F provides no reason to turn back the clock and return to an expensive, ineffective idea, especially at a time when we've already approved the biggest retention plan in the City's history and are giving senior officers retention premium pay to the tune of 17% of their salaries this year and 20% by 2026.
- UNFAIR: None of San Francisco's other public safety workers – Firefighters, social workers, 911 dispatchers – receive such large-scale retention benefits even when their workplaces are facing major staffing shortages.

With San Francisco facing a major budget deficit, every dollar we waste on Proposition F is a dollar we can't use to address actual public safety concerns.
