	Muni is facing severe cuts due to the end of emergency federal funding, which kept our transit running through the pandemic. These cuts will mean reduced Muni hours and frequency, and likely whole lines eliminated. Prop L will provide enough critical funding now to protect up to a dozen bus lines from getting cut. Families, seniors, and workers need reliable trains and buses to bring them to school and work, run errands, and visit loved ones. Service cuts will leave transit-dependent riders stranded and force many into driving or paying for expensive ride-hail services. Underfunding Muni will also lead to more traffic and more competition for parking, making travel throughout the City harder for those who must drive. Small businesses depend on Muni to bring in workers and customers, and strong public transit is critical for our downtown and citywide recovery. Prop L will allow San Francisco to thrive. Funding from Prop L can only be spent on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Preventing Muni service cuts and strengthening Muni service. • Preventing Paratransit service cuts and strengthening Paratransit service. • Supporting Muni access to parks, libraries, and schools by sustaining or improving lines, and their routes and frequency. • Sustaining and improving fare discount programs for youth, seniors, students, people with disabilities, and people with low incomes. Right now, San Francisco taxes ride-hail and robotaxi companies at a lower rate than other big cities. And if Prop L passes, SF ride-hail taxes will still be lower than those in NYC, D.C., and Chicago. This is a small, common-sense tax on these companies to help keep Muni running and accessible for all. Let's keep San Francisco moving.
