Ballot Argument Control Sheet A

Control Sheet A must be submitted for every ballot argument, with required signatures and author information. If your argument has more than one author, you must also submit Control Sheet B with required signatures and information for all additional authors.

For an argument submitted on behalf of an organization, the "Individual" section must also be completed by a principal officer of the organization who must be a registered San Francisco voter.

If an argument states that an individual or organization other than the author supports or opposes the ballot measure, or agrees with or endorses the argument, a completed and signed Consen Form is required.

Facilitate typesetting, and reduce the possibility of transcription error by sending an electronic copy or your ballot argument text within 24 hours after submission to the Department at publications@sfggv.org

	Proposition N sets a troubling precedent by using taxpayer money to pay off personal debts. This could open the door to similar demands from across the San Francisco civil service. City resources are strained, and diverting funds to personal debts may come at the expense of critical services like public safety, housing, and education.
	Proposition N fails to address the underlying issues that contribute to student loan debt among first responders, such as rising education costs and inadequate compensation. Proposition N offers a temporary fix that may not provide long-term financial stability.
	Proposition N could encourage early retirements, as first responders may be more inclined to leave once their loans are forgiven. This could lead to staffing shortages among our firefighters, paramedics and police officers, particularly experienced personnel most needed in emergencies.
	Supporting our first responders is vital, but Proposition N is not the best way to do it.
	Larry Marso
	Mr. Marso is a technology executive, M&A advisor and attorney. A staunch advocate for fiscal responsibility, he authored a ballot measure to regulate San Francisco navigation/linkage centers, has fought corruption and fraud in our political parties and nonprofits, and as a member and former executive of the local Republican Party committee, has offered principled opposition to John Dennis and the "progressive Republican" Briones Society.
