Surveillance Technology Goals

8.1 Has the surveillance technology been effective at achieving its identified purpose?

Yes

8.2 In 3-5 sentences, please explain how the technology has or has not been effective

The use of the Social Media Monitoring Platform, such as Hootsuite, has been effective in supporting the San Francisco Public Library's mission by enabling better communication with the public about the library's free programs and resources. By scheduling posts and maintaining an active social media presence, even during off-hours, the library ensures consistent messaging and greater outreach, especially to underserved communities. The platform allows the library to monitor engagement, analyze trends, and adjust strategies for more effective campaigns, thereby improving the library's ability to inform and serve its diverse community. This technology has enhanced the library's ability to promote its offerings and engage with the public more efficiently.
