

Muni Funding Working Group November 13 Meeting Public Comment

Disclaimer: The following are summaries only of public comments provided at the Muni Funding Working Group meeting. They are not intended to reflect the full content of the comments made at the meeting.

1. Raayan Mohtashemi, a legislative aide from Senator Scott Weiner's office, shared that Senator Weiner is leading a number of revenue initiatives intended to help fund Muni and other transit agencies in the Bay Area.
2. Steven Lawson from District 8 expressed concerns about the extension of Owl service and the reduction in frequency for busier lines, and the economic and equity impacts of these actions.
3. Edward Mason shared that commuter buses could be a source of revenue.