CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

December 5, 2024

Honorable Board of Supervisors
City Hall, Room 244
#1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place
San Francisco, CA 94102

Dear Honorable Clerk of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors:

At the meeting of the Police Commission on Wednesday, December 4, 2024, the following resolution was adopted:

RESOLUTION 24-142

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION URGING THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS TO AMEND SAN FRANCISCO'S HOMICIDE REWARD POLICY;

WHEREAS, On October 19, 2022 the San Francisco Standard published an article entitled SFPD Has Paid Zero Rewards to Solve Homicides for Nearly a Decade, which disclosed that SFPD had not paid out a reward in an unsolved homicide case since 2013. SFPD has not paid a reward in a homicide case since that article was published.

WHEREAS, On May 8, 2024, the Police Commission held a public hearing to discuss SFPD's unsolved homicide reward policy, as well as the policies of other jurisdictions. The goal of the hearing was to learn from the successes and failures of other jurisdictions in hopes that San Francisco might adopt changes to its policy to render it more effective. In preparation for the hearing, the Department of Police Accountability (DPA) issued a survey to several other jurisdictions seeking information on their reward policies. At the hearing, DPA presented the results of that survey as well as information it obtained from other sources on the outcomes associated with reward policies in other cities. SFPD also presented on San Francisco's homicide reward policy.

WHEREAS, During that May 8, 2024 meeting, the Lieutenant in charge of SFPD's homicide unit observed that ensuring that anonymous tipsters could receive awards in unsolved homicide cases "would be a big help ... to solve some of these cases and bring closure." S.F. Police Commission of May 8, 2024 Meeting, Video Recording at 1:48:55-1:49:08, <http://tiny.cc/9nbxzz> (hereafter "May 8 Meeting"). Chief William Scott also remarked that "fear of retaliation" often dissuades potential tipsters from providing helpful information to SFPD and "accepting an award." May 8 Meeting at 1:58:20-1:58:34.

WHEREAS, This Resolution is dedicated to Ms. Paulette Brown, whose son, Aubrey Abrakasa, Jr., was tragically murdered on August 14, 2006, and whose killers have never been brought to justice. Ms. Brown attends every Police Commission meeting. She speaks with both vulnerability and unflinching clarity about the wrenching pain of her loss, and her hope that her son's murder might one day be solved. She has been relentless in her efforts to prod this Commission into action, not only on her son's behalf, but for every family affected by an unsolved murder. Today, we recognize her advocacy, courage, and commitment to holding this Commission and SFPD accountable.

1. Rewards should be issued even when they do not result in a criminal conviction. Whether there is ultimately a conviction depends on a multitude of factors that have nothing to do with the reliability or quality of the information provided by a tipster. Rewards should instead be paid for information leading to criminal charges being instituted.
2. Rewards should be paid to anonymous tipsters, and all information relating to the identity of the tipster should be kept confidential to the fullest extent permitted by law, unless the tipster consents to having his or her identity made public.
3. Rewards should be paid regardless of whether the tipster has previously engaged in criminal misconduct. A criminal record (or suspected involvement in a crime) should not be the sole basis for declining to issue a reward.
4. Notwithstanding any other provision, no payout will be made to a person who is providing false information to solely obtain a monetary reward under this ordinance.
